NINETIETH GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the
STATE OF MISSOURI
SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Gracious God and Creator:

We bow now as Your children, and pray together for the leaders of our nation and our state. Strengthen these men and women of the House with courage and sensitivity. They are sincere men and women and they want to do what is right, make that which is right plain to them.

Start them out on the right way in this new session.

Help them to be examples to our state of justice and fair play.

Let no personal ambition blind them to the opportunities to do right.

Help them to have a divine common sense and to think of service, and not of gain, as they chart the course of leadership in law.

And to You be glory and honor. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sean Michael Foley.

Representative Crump suggested the absence of a quorum.

The following roll call indicated a quorum present:

SPEAKER ADDRESSES THE HOUSE

It is with hope for our promising future, and acknowledgment of our rich history, that we face the challenges of a new century and millennium.

As we pause a moment to look back over the last 1000 years we are reminded of the amazing amount of change our world has undergone.

We have seen the notion of our world change – from flat to spherical.

Diseases which ravaged families – the black plague, polio, small pox – have been brought closer to extinction.

Our forms of communication have changed from the simple state of talking and letters to the complex methods of video conferencing and email.

Our methods of transportation have evolved from ships with oars and sails exploring new frontiers of earth...
...to ships with rockets exploring new frontiers in the stars.

Through all of our remarkable technological advancement we have witnessed unbelievable sacrifices, courage, idealism and vision.

Time and again we have been witness to humankind's inspiring ability to rise to the challenge...

...to persevere, to overcome and excel in even the most difficult situations.

As a wise and famous preacher from the south named King once said,

"The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy."

It is during these times of great challenge when we have the opportunity to rise to the greatest heights possible.

Challenge and the responding human ingenuity and burning desire to succeed have given rise to some of our greatest accomplishments.

In addition to the amazing technological advancements, America's ability to rise to the challenge has given birth to...

...noble concepts like freedom and equality...

...guiding documents such as our Declaration of Independence and Constitution...

...and the greatest nation this world has ever known.

But even as we have met the greatest challenges when we are at our best...

...so too have we experienced humanity at its worst.

We need only look back for a moment to be reminded of the times our ability to meet the challenge has wavered.

...events such as the Holocaust...

...institutions like slavery...

...and countless wars...

...all are testimony to the fact that we as a people sometimes fall to the lowest depths just as we can ascend to the greatest heights.

Yet, as we look back over the last 1000 years, more often than not we have risen to the challenge and overcome adversity.

It is with great pride that I congratulate this body for its ability to successfully meet many of the challenges we have faced in the last few years.

Whether the challenge we faced was in reforming this House in bringing state government closer to the people...

...in providing Missouri families with Internet audio access so they might listen in on the debates on the House floor and the decisions that affect their lives...

...in creating a website that places a wealth of information at the fingertips of Missourians...

Or whether it was in creating a truly bipartisan ethics committee to help ensure this body is accountable to our citizens...

You have demonstrated the ability to rise to a challenge.

And just as you have improved the workings of this body, so too have you improved the conditions for Missouri's working families.

Today we can proudly say that we live in a state where our economy is booming...

...where we have cut taxes for working families three years in a row...

...where unemployment rates are near record lows...

...where our inflation rate continues to be below the national average...

...where new and expanding businesses find opportunities to flourish...

...and where crime rates are down.

Over the last few years we have time and again risen to the challenge of helping Missouri families.

We have created legislation that ensures our state will be a better place for the generations to come...

...the Outstanding Schools Act...

...A+ Schools...

...eliminating the state sales tax on food...

...property tax relief for seniors...

...welfare reform...

...Family Development Accounts...

...ending court-ordered desegregation...

...Advantage Missouri and increased access to higher education...

...Health Insurance for Children of Working Families...

...Safe Schools Act...

...Family Care Safety Act...

...workers' compensation reform...

...truth in sentencing...

Your efforts have a distinct and profound impact on the working families of this state.

Last year, this House continued the work of improving our educational system — putting more emphasis on the basics, fully funding our school foundation formula and increasing the accountability of our schools.

We faced the challenge of cutting taxes for working families, senior citizens and small businesses...

...and we succeeded...

...marking our third year in a row of tax cuts totaling nearly $700 million, coupled with nearly $870 million in refund checks to Missourians.

And we undertook the challenge of preserving an important part of a way of life in Missouri - our family farms...
...reaffirming our commitment not just to the farm but to the family that lives on that farm.

In 2000, our challenges are as great and perhaps greater.
Through hard work on interim committees you have already begun the effort.
In this new century with the accelerated role of technology, education will be vital to the success of our children.

We must provide the best possible educational opportunities for their future.
Last year's "Read to be Ready" legislation increased our emphasis on the basic idea of teaching our children how to read.

Statistics on reading abilities in the early grades- shows 7 out of 10 third graders not reading proficiently...
...coupled with stories of social promotion...
...gave us cause for action.

This year I ask you to accept the challenge of helping our young people by funding the Read to be Ready program so that we bring the basics back to education and accountability to the schools for the results they produce.

We should not be satisfied until the quality of our schools matches the quality of our children.

This nation stands today as the hallmark of freedom and opportunity.

It is there in great part because of the sacrifices and contributions of a group of people Tom Brokaw calls the "Greatest Generation."

With their courage, determination and sacrifice they defended not only this nation but restored freedom to much of the world...

...defeating perhaps the greatest evil of this century.

We owe them more than we can ever repay.

Let us make sure that our seniors that so desire have the opportunity to stay in their homes as long as they are able...

...and that they have safe and healthful places to live.

We must make sure that the way we treat seniors reflects the debt we owe them.

And let us crack down on those who defraud Missouri consumers, especially our seniors, through telemarketing fraud and financial exploitation.

Obtaining affordable health care coverage continues to be a substantial challenge for many of our families.
Missouri has been at the forefront of reforms in health care ...

...we are one of three states to have passed a comprehensive patients' bill of rights.

...and we have passed legislation providing better access to affordable health insurance for children of working families.

For the last two years, this House has passed legislation to ensure access to affordable health insurance for small businesses and family farmers in Missouri.

But for two years in a row, that legislation has died before reaching the governor's desk.

2000 must be the year when all hardworking families in this state finally have access to affordable health insurance coverage.

We also have worked very hard the last few years to keep criminals off of our streets...

...cracking down on meth dealers...

...toughening our sentencing laws...

...and creating the most comprehensive laws in the nation against sexual predators.

Now, amidst all the wonderful opportunities provided by new technology, we must also acknowledge the opportunities it provides for new abuses.

We must keep in mind that many of our laws were drafted before the Internet was even a dream.

In many cases, this means our citizens may not be protected from crimes committed on the Internet.

These abuses...

...the sale of alcohol to minors...

...terrifying school children with threats of violence...

...and child pornography occurring over the Internet...

...should give us cause for action.

We can change this and we must do it this year.

So too we should work to ensure that the private affairs of our citizens, such as medical and financial records, remain private.

Today, many of those records are accessible over the Internet, and in some cases for sale.

Expanding information technology should not include forfeiting our right to have private information kept private.

This session, we have an opportunity to address an issue that will impact us for generations.

The tobacco settlement could result in $6.7 billion dollars over the next 25 years.

The possibilities exist for something which has produced sickness to produce health.

I believe we should guarantee first that any proceeds received are placed in trust and not co-mingled and lost in general revenue.

I ask that you consider dedicating some of these funds to prevent the future occurrences of illnesses through tobacco prevention, education and cessation programs...

...that a portion be invested in health care and healthy children...

...and that we also set aside some part for a rainy day.

And let what we ultimately propose be put forth to the people of this state for their approval.

This session we continue to find our family farms in crisis.

Last year's efforts to save the family farm must not cease.

This year we need to see that the markets are not closed to them.

In this time of mergers, consolidations and vertical integration, let us be sure there is still a place for the family farmer.

Today, as has been the case throughout our history, we are challenged with violence in our families.

We know of its cyclical nature and of its victims - spouses, seniors and children.

Last session we made strides in our pursuit of safer families with the passage of the Family Care Safety Act.

But during this past year we continued to hear horrific stories of the consequences of abuse in our state, including the deaths of two young children in Kansas City.

We should make every effort to provide help to families in trouble in this state before the tragedies occur.

Recently, the news has been dominated by stories about the tragic violence by and against our children.

Missouri has been at the forefront in passing Safe Schools legislation and juvenile justice reforms.

But we are not immune from the tragedies that have occurred in other states.

We should continue our efforts to ensure our schools are safe places for our children.

One hundred years ago, being able to travel safely for business and pleasure was important.

Today it is vital.

We have a transportation system which is not adequate for our needs now, let alone in the days ahead.

There have been plenty of people focusing on the past and pointing fingers at who is to blame.

Let us put these things behind us.

It is now time for us to look to the future and accept the challenge of finding solutions to address the problem.

There are those who would say that this session is too difficult to be successful...
...that the challenge of an election year is too great...
...that partisanship will prevail.
Some would say we should just stay home.

But what would the consequences have been if Lewis and Clark had just stayed home?
...if Lincoln had just stayed home...
...if Neal Armstrong had just stayed home...
...if Rosa Parks had just stayed home.
...if the "Greatest Generation" this nation has ever seen had just stayed home?

We have too much to do.
We have too much at stake for the working families of this state.
We cannot afford to just stay home.

As we move into the new millennium, let us resolve to continue to work together...
...to put the welfare of the people first, ahead of partisanship and self-interest...
...building and improving on the great foundation of freedom and opportunity we have been so graciously given...
...so that our descendants are as proud of our sacrifices as we are of those who have come before us.

I believe that in the end we will succeed, not because we should, but because we must.
We have challenges to meet...
...we have work to do...
Let us get to it.

Thank you.

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 6, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Lord of all, we pray for this land and for our state.

We need Your help. In Your providence this nation was founded.

Men and women of faith have passed on to us the great heritage of belief.

Bless all in this House as they work to strengthen the heritage of righteousness and justice that binds us together.

We pray for those whose needs are great. And now remember Representative Estel Robirds as he recovers from surgery, and for Representative Mary Kasten's husband, Mel, as he recovers.

And to You be glory and power. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, The Honorable William Ray Price, Jr. The Chief Justice was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in Joint Session.

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS

By Chief Justice William Ray Price, Jr.

Mr. Speaker... Mr. President... Members of the General Assembly,

On behalf of the judges of the state of Missouri, it is a pleasure and an honor to deliver this 27th State of the Judiciary address. As we stand on the threshold of the twenty-first century, it is appropriate for us not only to speak of today's issues, but to consider our past and the future, as well.

We have come a long way from the time of pioneers in long boats and covered wagons. What was a wilderness purchased from France in 1803 is now the thriving heartland of America. What was a land of lawlessness is now a state in which the fair and equal application of law prevails.

As a people seeking justice we have made great progress over the years. In 1820, when Missouri's first Supreme Court was established, slavery was legal and women were not allowed to vote. In the mid-1800's the state was divided by a civil war and fear for life and property was the rule not the exception. Today the full protection of the law extends to all people regardless of religion, race, or gender and our courts enjoy the service of increasing numbers of African-American, Hispanic, and women judges. Although we still have a long way to go, this is a tremendous accomplishment in which we can all share joy and pride.

Another significant accomplishment for Missouri over the past century was the adoption in 1940 of the Missouri Plan for the appointment of judges. The Plan minimizes the harmful influence of partisan politics on judges while still holding judges accountable to the people. The wisdom of this plan is attested to by thirty-six states and the District of Columbia which have modeled their own plans after it. Missouri was the leader of our nation in this important step.

In just this past decade, our courts have continued to strive for improvement. As judges, we imposed time standards on ourselves and participated in a program of judicial transfers to more promptly resolve our cases. The courts were opened to electronic media. Family and drug courts were established. We began the statewide automation of our courts. The first woman and the first African-American were appointed to the Missouri Supreme Court. But, throughout all of this change, our focus has remained steadfast upon resolving the disputes of our citizens. Justice is our first priority. The delivery of justice in a timely and efficient manner.

It is difficult to measure the quality of justice. Often that measurement is shaped by the eye of the beholder, relative to his or her particular interest. But, I can tell you without hesitation that we are resolving the cases that come to us as promptly and efficiently as possible.

Unlike other states, we have no great delays in providing court dates for trials. This past year 962,986 cases were filed in our circuit courts. That is up from the year before and an increase of almost 20% from 1993. Our caseload is steadily increasing. But, the vast majority of cases in Missouri are resolved in less than two years and many within one year. Here are the hard numbers:

- 80% of circuit court civil cases are disposed within 18 months
- 90% of domestic relations cases are disposed within 1 year
- 97% of associate civil cases are complete in 1 year, and 89% are complete within 6 months

- 87% of circuit court felony cases are completed within 8 months.

Two key factors helped us achieve these results. First, in 1993, we adopted “time standards” to provide guidelines within which litigants could expect to have their cases heard. These standards encourage judges to keep track of how long a case has been pending and to resolve cases promptly.

Second, we pursued a more aggressive program of judicial transfers. We asked sitting judges and senior judges to increase their assistance to circuits with heavy dockets. Since 1994, judges have worked over 40,200 days and handled over 10,700 cases on judicial transfer.

Although both of these programs were controversial at first, they worked. Again the numbers tell the story.

- In 1993, the first year time standards took effect, more cases were disposed of than were filed, something that had not happened in recent history prior to that time.
- Since 1993 although case filings have increased by nearly 20%, the number of pending cases increased only 12.2%.
- Since 1997, in each and every one of the five case categories, the time necessary to process cases has decreased.

Of course, none of this could have happened without the hard work and dedication of the men and women who are judges in Missouri. And, it could not have happened without your support and cooperation in providing necessary funding. We recognize that you have provided us with scarce resources and we are proud that despite an increasing workload our portion of the state’s budget is less than 1% of total state expenditures.

As you begin this legislative session, there are a number of issues that are important to the judiciary: the proper role for judicial commissioners, the method of appointment of circuit court clerks, increased compensation for jurors, family court enhancements and criminal justice reforms. All received considerable attention last year and all will be debated again this year. I do not have time during these remarks to address each of those issues because there are two other issues I need to discuss in detail.

The first is our joint effort to create a statewide system of court automation. This has been an ambitious and difficult undertaking, but it is absolutely necessary if we are to provide timely and efficient service in the years to come. Our court system must keep up with the rest of Missouri.

When we began this project five years ago many county courts had no automation. Courts in our larger counties that had automated systems could not be linked to the rest of the state and some suffered potentially fatal Y2K problems. With your assistance, a committee was formed and began to design a single integrated system that would meet the needs of all of the courts of this state. The goals for the new computer system were increased efficiency, improved public access, and better management.

Implementing this new technology, as might be expected, has not been cheap or easy, but we have made significant progress. Today we have an information system that allows communication among all of the judicial circuits in the state. One hundred percent of appellate and circuit court judges, as well as nearly ninety percent of associate circuit judges and circuit clerks have access to the system. Case management software is working in divisions of the Barton, Boone, Cole, Franklin, Jackson, Montgomery, Platte, St. Charles, Taney and Warren county courts as well as in all three districts of the Court of Appeals and in the Supreme Court. At the end of Fiscal year 2000, 31% of the state’s caseload will be managed by this software, serving 41% of the state’s population. We particularly thank the court staffs, lawyers and citizens of Montgomery and Jackson counties for serving as pilot sites. They suffered the inevitable wrinkles that needed to be discovered before they could be ironed out.

At this time forty-two courts are requesting implementation of the case management system. The speed with which we will be able to grant these requests and time within which we will be able to complete our state wide objectives will depend upon the amount of funding you provide.

Last year you provided $6.1 million of funding. With this money case management software has been installed in seven courts with Y2K problems and in seven additional courts as well. By the end of the year we hope to complete installation of case management software in twenty-three courts.

This session we are requesting funds to install the case management software in another twenty to forty courts and to continue development of the system. We understand that this will be a tight budget year and additional resources for any project will be limited. We want you to understand that we are thankful for the support you have given us for this project. We will do the best we can to continue this vital work throughout the state as quickly as funding allows.

Drug courts are another priority of the judiciary. Seven years ago the first drug court was established in Jackson County. Two years ago a task force of the judicial conference recommended and you passed a bill authorizing drug courts statewide. Today twenty-two drug courts are in operation in Missouri with another seventeen in planning stages.

The benefits of drug courts are clear. Instead of sending a non-violent drug offender to prison, he or she is provided treatment under judicial supervision. Cost savings are substantial and the likelihood of rehabilitation is greatly increased. Statewide we have had 869 individuals graduate from drug court with only 34 being rearrested or convicted for new crimes. This represents roughly a 4% recidivism rate compared with a rate of 45%, or greater, for drug offenders who have not graduated from drug court. Drug courts are the right and the efficient thing to do.

Drug courts also have a place outside of the adult criminal system. Jackson and Newton counties are initiating family drug courts. Juvenile drug courts have been established in Newton and Scott counties and Saint Louis City. A number of other counties are planning for juvenile and family drug courts as well.

The primary cost of drug courts is providing treatment and supervision to the participating individuals. Presently, the funding for this treatment is spread among a number of state agencies and is not formally coordinated. Most of the treatment money is channeled through the Department of Corrections and can only be used for adult felony offenders. This money is not available for family drug courts or the treatment of juveniles. We should have a system that is more flexible to the needs of Missouri. A mother struggling to keep, or regain, custody of her children or a troubled juvenile trying to stay in school needs and deserves treatment just as much as an adult charged with a felony.

To solve this problem the Judicial Conference is asking that you establish a drug court commission to coordinate and to administer all moneys allocated to drug courts. The commission would include members of the various state agencies involved in drug treatment issues, the Department of Corrections, the Department of Social Services, the Department of Public Safety, the Department of Mental Health, and the courts. The commission would coordinate all state funding for drug courts, whether adult, family, or juvenile. This will allow for the full utilization of treatment moneys where they are most needed and establish a central source for evaluation and management of drug court programs state wide. I urge you to seriously consider this proposal.

Finally, just a brief thought about the future. If we have learned anything from the past, it is that the foundation for the future is change. Change in technology, change in issues and interests, change in leaders. To serve the people of Missouri well, we in state government will have to identify and resolve the changing problems of each new day under ever-increasing public pressure and with ever-increasing speed. But if we are to serve the people of Missouri well, we will also have to resolve the problems of each new day in accordance with the virtues of our past. Between 1922 and 1924, 14 of those virtues were carved into the walls of this very chamber; knowledge, liberty, equality, law, justice, fraternity, education, progress, honor, truth, virtue, temperance, enterprise, and charity. If we remain true to these virtues, regardless of what problems lay ahead, the state of Missouri can look forward to a future even greater than its past.

Thank You.

The Joint Session was dissolved by the Lieutenant Governor.

Speaker Gaw resumed the Chair.

FIFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Gracious God, help us to understand that the pace of our lives is often so hectic that we miss the impact of conscience and values. Protect these men and women of the House, so they do not lose a sense of what is right, what is true, what is best for all.

Keep us sensitive to Your eternal truth, and confident that what is the right and the fitting will be clear to those who seek the right and the fitting.

Point the way, we pray; and to You be glory and honor. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Dr. John H. Robinson and Marilyn L. Robinson.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SEVENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 17, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Almighty and Eternal God, Source of our wisdom and the strength to carry out our highest goals, be with this Assembly today. Give these Representatives the insight to move their deliberations on to successful conclusions. Bless these men and women with the courage to be true to their desire to serve the people of this sovereign state. And may their hearts and minds be filled with the ideas and motivations that called Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., whose memory we observe today, to give his very life for the good of this nation. May these men and women, in all they do today, be guided by the same tenets which guided his code of belief in the sacredness and inviolability of every human being. Sit and deliberate with this august body today, God, ever true, ever caring, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Jansen Murray, Dana Michelle McFarlane, Pete Herring and Meredith Gibbons.

The Journal of the sixth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

HB 1510 through HB 1559

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

EIGHTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God of creative power, fill these women and men you've gathered with all the creative impulses necessary for their work today. In the shadow of their deliberations help them sense the presence of all those they serve, both those who are graced with plenty, and also those who suffer want; those whom society holds up for adulation, and those whom our culture tends to abandon. May the laws they prepare to enact, help to build up all the people of Missouri. And God, help them to continue to experience their work for us all as adventure and discovery, uncovering and building an even happier state in matter and spirit. Bless and help them, Your sons and daughters, today, and all days, world without end. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Lauren Decker, Erin Pohl, Kristin Merlo, Katie Hooper, Sarah Coyne, Brian Light and Jessica Light.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Governor of the State of Missouri, The Honorable Mel Carnahan. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and to the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the Assembly in the Joint Session.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS
BY GOVERNOR MEL CARNAHAN

January 19, 2000

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Mr. President Pro Tem, Distinguished State Officials, Mr. Chief Justice, Members of the State Supreme Court, Members of the 90th General Assembly, and Citizens of the State of Missouri:

INTRODUCTION

After I finished my service in the Air Force, Jean and I moved back to Missouri so I could attend law school at the University of Missouri in Columbia.

Our first home was a small one near the Fairgrounds.

And at that time, when the Boone County Fair was going strong, if it was a hot day and the wind was in the right direction, the air around our house could become pretty strong as well.

But that's a whole other story.

The contractor who built our house had purchased the material to construct a series of houses—all in a row and all the same design.

However, since our house was the last in the series to be built, it was cobbled together with the leftover scraps.

The flooring boards were all different sizes.

The bathroom tile and kitchen cabinets were also mix and match, so let's just say, those two rooms had their own unique character.

And the trim and the hardware in the house did not even come close to matching.

But the most distinctive feature of the house was one we first discovered on the day we arrived.

The way our home was designed, the garage was supposed to lead into a laundry room that led to the rest of the house—except it didn't.

The contractor had never finished the job.

There was no door.

The steps in the garage, which were supposed to connect to the laundry room, led right up to a solid wall.

Over the next three days and nights, while Jean and I slept with our baby boy Randy on the floor waiting for our furniture to arrive, we had plenty of time to discuss what we were going to do about this problem.

But when the furniture movers arrived, our problem was solved.

When the last piece of furniture was off the truck, the mover found a door.

Now none of us had any idea where that door came from, but when the mover asked us if we wanted it, we certainly accepted.

Then I got out my tools, and after a lot of work with a hammer and saw, I managed to cut a hole in the wall, build a frame for the door, and actually hang the door.

Now with my limited carpentry skills, this task was no mean feat.

In fact, the first time that I tried to hang that door, I put the hinges in wrong, and the door fell right out of its frame.

I'm sure it looked like a bad episode from "Tool Time."

But when the job was finally finished, and we could approach the door with every confidence that it would not only open properly but not fall on any of us in the process, I was quite proud of my handiwork.

I tell you this story because I believe it illustrates why we are here as public servants on behalf of the citizens of the State of Missouri.

For the past seven years, our administration has worked with you to open doors for Missourians.

Sometimes, it was just a matter of a little oiling and planing to make the doors work properly.

Other times, we had to take the door out and start over.

And on some occasions, just like in the case of Jean and my first house, we began at square one and put in a door where one didn't exist before.

However, because of what we have been able to accomplish...because of the doorways we built and the new opportunities we created...Missourians are now better educated, healthier, and safer than they were when we started.

ECONOMY

Any builder will tell you that in order for doors to open properly, you must begin with a solid foundation.

For our state, that foundation is a strong economy.

Through our responsible fiscal management and aggressive economic development efforts of the past seven years, we have built that foundation.

Certainly, Missouri faces some difficult economic challenges.

Most urgent among them is the crisis confronting our family farmers and our entire agricultural sector.

But overall, our state's economy remains strong.

Since 1993, we have helped to create a net total of more than 365,000 new jobs for Missourians.

And remember that seven percent unemployment in 1993?

Today Missouri's unemployment rate is 2.3 percent--the lowest in thirty years.

Another positive development for Missourians since 1993 is what has happened to median income.

The median income of Missouri families has risen 11.4 percent in real terms since 1993.

And we have achieved all this while keeping our own house in order.

We've kept our state debt very low, and we continue to be one of only a handful of states with a triple A bond rating from all major rating agencies.

Furthermore, we've succeeded in providing meaningful tax relief for Missouri's working families.

Seven years ago, to help give our young people a better education, taxes were raised on higher income earners.

Then we were able to get to work on cutting taxes.

The cutting began in 1994 and 1996.

And we really got moving in 1997, 1998, and 1999.

Among other things, we cut personal income taxes several times and eliminated the general state sales tax on food.

We also cut the franchise tax and exempted small businesses entirely.

Some of our tax cuts from last year are just now kicking in.

When they do, we will have provided approximately $650 million in permanent tax cuts since 1994, and a net decrease in taxes of more than 300 million dollars since the beginning of this administration.

Your association—the bipartisan National Conference of State Legislatures—recently noted that because of the tax cuts we passed in 1999, Missourians will receive the third largest tax cut in the nation this year.

Last year, we provided Missourians with the second largest tax cut in the nation.

And the year before that, Missourians received the ninth largest tax cut in the country.

That is a remarkable record, and we did it all while still being able to increase resources for our schools, expand services to senior citizens, improve access to quality health care—particularly for our children—and meet other crucial challenges and responsibilities.

Is it any wonder that Missouri received national recognition last year when Governing Magazine gave our state the highest grade in a landmark study of state government management practices?

We were one of only four states to receive this honor.

Our challenge now is to sustain this strong economy and ensure that all areas of the state benefit from this economic growth.

We are well positioned to do both.

With your help, over the past few years, we have put into place some of the most creative and aggressive economic development tools anywhere in the nation.

And we are seeing dramatic results.

Significant job growth and job retention.

A growing high-tech industry spurred by new seed capital.

Major development projects that not only generate new business, but preserve the unique historic character of our downtowns and neighborhoods as well.

And job training programs that will guarantee we have a competitive workforce for the 21st century marketplace.

Initiatives such as our historic preservation tax credit, distressed communities program, and neighborhood preservation act have brought tremendous statewide benefits.

And in our urban areas, these initiatives are generating a true renaissance.

This is important for all Missourians because the urban centers are major economic engines that help provide sustained prosperity throughout Missouri.

EDUCATION

As my first official act as Governor back in 1993, I opened the doors of the Governor's Office to a group of 80 elementary students.

I wanted to send a clear message to all Missourians that the education of our young people would be our administration's top priority.

I told those students that we would be doing everything possible to give them the educational resources they needed to succeed in the years ahead and that we would be doing something never done in the history of education in Missouri.

And now we are seeing the positive results of our effort.

Our improvements begin at our children's earliest age—those years that research now confirms are critical to their future success.

As a result of our early childhood care and education initiative two years ago and stronger investment in other early childhood programs, we are now greatly increasing the access of Missouri families to quality child care programs for their young children.

Our Outstanding Schools Act, which I signed into law my first year in office, has made a tremendous impact in classrooms across Missouri.

Thanks to its improved way of distributing school funding, emphasis on technology, new performance standards, tough accountability measures, and other initiatives, education in Missouri is taking important steps forward.

Since 1993, we have reduced class sizes in our lower grades.

The number of kindergartners now enrolled in full time programs has increased by 137 percent.

The number of schools offering summer school has increased by 165 percent.

Dropout rates for Missouri students have gone down, and graduation rates have climbed.

And we have connected 97 percent of the school districts in Missouri to the Internet.

These are real demonstrations of progress that our schools can take pride in having achieved.

Another program from the Outstanding Schools Act which is greatly benefiting Missouri students is our A-Plus Program.

If students complete our A-Plus curriculum successfully, they can attend a Missouri public community college, state technical college, or adult program at an area vocational school for two years and have their tuition and books fully paid.

One of the many students to benefit from this innovative program is Patrick Cox from my hometown.

Patrick was a member of the first class to complete the A-Plus curriculum at Rolla High School.

A-Plus helped him attend State Fair Community College in Sedalia.

Now a junior business management major at the University of Missouri in Columbia, Patrick feels those two years of personal and academic growth at State Fair gave him a leg up in succeeding at the University.

He also was greatly influenced by the 50 hours of mentoring he was required to complete as a part of the A-Plus curriculum.

Patrick mentored elementary and junior high at-risk students in the Rolla school system.

He gained such personal satisfaction from that experience that he spent ten weeks this past summer working with troubled boys at the Boys and Girls Town in St. James.

At this time, I would like to ask him to stand so you can all meet this fine young man.

To continue our significant progress in education, I am proud to recommend that once again our school foundation formula be fully funded.

I also want to see more of our teachers become National Board Certified teachers.

We currently have only 29 nationally certified teachers in our entire state.

Under my plan, we will pay the application fees for the certificate and the cost for substitute teachers' pay so we can prepare 100 new teachers to become nationally certified.

Keeping Missouri students safe has been another major objective of our administration.

Under our Safe Schools Act of 1996, we will continue to offer school district grants, which they can tailor to make their schools a more secure environment for students.

This legislative session I want to build on this progress by asking the legislature to approve several recommendations that were made by the School Violence Task Force I appointed last year.

One step we need to take is clarifying the definition of gun-free school zones for our school districts.

A gun-free school zone should exist in any school setting--on the school bus or playground or at an extracurricular activity.

Our penalties for making false bomb threats should be expanded to include any threat to harm students and school property.

We also need to put stronger laws on the books to keep our children safe from dangerous firearms.

How many times have we picked up the paper to read about young children who harmed a playmate or suffered personal injury themselves because a loaded firearm was readily available?

To prevent more of these tragedies, I am proposing legislation to require that every new handgun sold in our state must be sold with a child safety lock.

While we are working to create a safe environment for our students, we've also got to do more to reduce violent behavior in the first place.

Specifically, we must do more to build character and personal strength in our young people—to instill respect and a sense of community—to prepare our children to be the leaders of tomorrow.

Incidents such as the Columbine shooting in Colorado or bomb threats here in Missouri should not happen.

But to prevent them, we have to teach our children to respect each other and to know right from wrong. That responsibility rests primarily with parents.

However, all of us have a role to play in helping our children build character and become responsible adults.

Our recently released School Violence Task Force report recommends several concrete steps we can take immediately to reduce violent behavior and build character among our young people.

Those recommendations include:

---teaching our children the social skills they need to get along with each other and respect one another;

---and creating opportunities for children to use peer mediation and conflict resolution;

---and incorporate anti-drug, anti-violence, and anti-gang messages in their every day lives;

Most of these recommendations revolve around the classroom.

While decisions about curriculum should be made at the local level, I strongly encourage communities to seriously consider implementing these recommendations, which I strongly endorse.

Together, we can make a real difference in our children's lives.

We can build the character and moral stamina they need to grow into decent, honest adults.

URBAN SCHOOLS

Certainly, one of our biggest challenges will be helping our two largest urban school districts in St. Louis and Kansas City to improve.

Last October, our State Board of Education advised both districts that they were going to move into unaccredited status because they are not meeting crucial academic performance standards.

For more than two decades, these districts have been under the control of the federal courts, who directed billions of dollars to the two districts with no accountability taking place.

Now, finally, that is no longer the case.

This administration and Attorney General Jay Nixon have been able to accomplish what previous administrations and attorneys general could not—convincing the federal courts that they should return local control of the school districts to local leadership.

We did this two ways.

First, we were able to develop and establish new lines of communication in the community and bring together those who understood the importance of a successful public school system to these urban areas.

Second, our Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, under the leadership of Commissioner Bartman, together with the State Board of Education, under the leadership of Peter Herschend, formulated an urban education plan which demands accountability and high standards.

It is their work which the court recognized in its order November 17, 1999, when it stated one of its reasons for restoring “state and local authorities to the control of the Kansas City School District.”

And so, as we begin the 21st century, we can all focus on education, not litigation.

We should give the law and the new accountability measures time to do their jobs.

With the courts moving out of the way, the state is working aggressively to help those districts repair their long-standing and long-neglected problems.

Our Department of Elementary and Secondary Education has been working closely with both the Kansas City and St. Louis school districts to help them improve their academic performance and meet the requirements of the new standards within two years.

The two school districts have recently announced preliminary school improvement plans, taken steps to downsize their central office bureaucracies, and established direct lines of communication with their building principals—all key steps to progress.

In both districts, state education officials are identifying and assigning expert teachers to work directly with principals and teachers to introduce “best practices” from other schools.

Some people have declared that a state of emergency has suddenly arisen because the two urban districts are not meeting the new standards.

The reality is that the emergency in urban education has existed for many years, and the lack of accountability during the period of court control has made the problems worse.

Now, with our new standards in place, the problems are finally being measured.

And with the courts moving out of the way, we can finally hold those districts accountable for results—like we are doing in the rest of Missouri.

TOBACCO SETTLEMENT

The national tobacco settlement provides us with new opportunities to improve the health of future generations of Missourians.

While yesterday's court decision may be good news, all litigation is not finally resolved.

And it is unclear whether the federal government will attempt to recover part of these funds.

But we must be prepared to receive and use these funds effectively and appropriately when they do begin to arrive.

That means we need to have a plan in place, and that plan must be sent to a vote of the people if we are to ensure that the settlement is not tied up in further lengthy litigation.

I believe we should establish a Trust Fund to set aside the tobacco settlement money and require clear accountability for the use of the funds.

I believe that these funds would be most appropriately used for health care; smoking prevention efforts; health research that will prevent or cure diseases such as cancer and heart and lung disorders; early childhood education and care; and helping senior citizens pay the spiraling costs of prescription drugs.

And I believe that most Missourians would agree.

So I am asking you to authorize a ballot issue that would establish a trust fund to set aside the tobacco settlement funds and designate these specific uses for this new source of state money.

CHILDREN

Together we have worked hard to open doors for those who are unable to open them on their own—our children.

Some of this progress is the result of our work on increasing access to health care and better child abuse prevention efforts.

Because of the emphasis we have placed on seeing that our youngest citizens are immunized, today almost 86 percent of Missouri 2-year-olds have received this protection from harmful diseases.

Missouri has jumped from 49th in the nation to seventh place today on this important measure.

Probably one of the greatest days for me as Governor was when we worked together to provide access to health insurance for the thousands of Missouri children who were uninsured.

Thanks again, Senator Quick.

Now as a result of our efforts, over the past 18 months, we have been able to extend health care coverage to over 56,000 of these formerly uninsured children.

Two of those children and their parents are here with us today—Kayla and Kyle Miller and their parents, John and Lisa.

This family is from Potosi.

John and Lisa have always worked hard to support their family.

But their wages have not always made it possible for them to pay for health insurance for their children.

Today, Lisa is the MC-Plus Coordinator for Washington County, and her children have health insurance, thanks to MC-Plus.

Kayla was finally able to get the dental care she desperately needed, and Kyle, who was having some problems with his school work because of vision problems, finally got glasses and is now doing well.

Just recently, John got a promotion at his job, and now the children will be moving to the co-pay group of MC-Plus For Kids.

But as Lisa says,

“I no longer have to tell the kids we don’t have the money to take them to the doctor and stay awake nights praying their pain and sickness will go away.”

Please help me welcome John and Lisa Miller and their children Kayla and Kyle.

To build on our past record of protecting the lives of children, I will be urging you this legislative session to take action on several priorities of the Child Fatality Task Force, which I appointed last spring.

One of those is to put one of the most stringent laws in the nation on the books to stem the flow of child pornography on the Internet.

Our state definition of what constitutes child pornography will be brought up to date by including computer data, computer generated images, digital camera images or pictures, and visual depictions.

We propose enhancing the penalty for those who attempt to sell or produce child pornography to a sentence which would range from 10 to 30 years to life in prison.

In addition, the penalty for the possession of child pornography would be increased.

Our initiative also defines a new crime—furnishing pornography to a minor—which will be considered a Class A felony.

Thanks to legislation approved over the last three years, Missouri now has one of the strongest sexual predator laws in the country.

But this session, we need to add new provisions to protect our children.

Our proposal would allow the crimes of sexual assault, child molestation, and sexual abuse to be used in charging someone as a sexual predator.

METH

Another initiative I propose that the General Assembly adopt this session would increase the punishment for those who manufacture the dangerous drug methamphetamine around children.

We already have one of the toughest “meth” laws in the country—a model being used in other states and one that Congress is trying to emulate.

However, this year, I would like to see us expand on our work so we can offer protection to the children who are forced to live in the middle of these drug dens.

One of the horror stories that law enforcement officers have discovered while waging our war on “meth” is that some of those who manufacture this sinister substance do so at home with their children present.

I urge you to create the crime of unlawful drug transactions with a child—with a potential penalty of life in prison.

CRIME

Although our administration has been committed to opening doors to new opportunities for Missourians over the past seven years, we have tried to slam some doors shut as tight as possible—prison doors.

Thanks to your help with this effort, our most dangerous criminals are now serving an average of ten years longer than they did under the previous law.

The most violent juvenile offenders who commit adult crimes are now receiving adult sentences.

Sexual predators can now be given life sentences with a mandatory minimum of thirty years before ever being eligible for parole.

And victims are now receiving more support and assistance than under any other administration in Missouri’s history.

These changes, in addition to greatly increased law enforcement training and resources, are having the desired effect.

The violent crime rate which was headed upward in 1992 has been reversed.

Since that time, Missouri’s violent crime rate has decreased by over 26 percent.

To continue our efforts to improve safety and fight crime, this year I am asking your help in cracking down on one of the major causes of deaths and injuries in our state—drunken drivers.

Under the terms of our proposal, the legal blood alcohol content level for drivers of vehicles and boats will be lowered from .10 to .08.

The maximum jail time for a first offense will be increased from six months to one year.

We will also establish a new crime defined as aggravated driving with excessive blood alcohol content for drivers who risk the lives of others by getting behind the wheel with a blood alcohol content of .15 or greater.

Another area of our DWI law which particularly cries out for reform is the way we deal with repeat offenders.

Right now, drunken drivers that put the lives of you and your loved ones at risk can have three prior convictions before they can be convicted of a felony.

I propose those who have a blood alcohol content of .15 or above should receive a felony conviction on the first offense.

And there will be no more escapes for those first-time offenders who are given suspended impositions of sentence for driving under the influence.

That possibility will be gone.

I would also propose that our Boating While Intoxicated laws parallel the DWI laws.

I realize these are extremely tough new provisions, but when you think about one American dying every thirty-two minutes because of an alcohol-related crash or someone being injured every two minutes because of alcohol impaired drivers, tough is what we need to be.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Another door that must be opened wider over the next few years in our state is the one that offers service to seniors.

We rank 12th nationally in the percentage of our population that is age 65 or older.

And projections tell us that by the year 2020, one fourth of our entire state population will be seniors.

From the beginning of our administration, helping seniors achieve the best quality of life possible has been a top priority.

This year, we want to take new steps to assure the quality of care for our elderly and protect them from abuse.

We already have a Long Term Care Ombudsman Program with 345 volunteers visiting our nursing homes and residential care facilities.

Sad as it is to say, most elder abuse occurs at home. We want to establish a new In-Home Ombudsman Program so volunteers can report those incidences of abuse or neglect that are taking place in home settings.

We also want to provide grants to medical schools and other organizations that educate health care professionals for the development of courses and educational materials on elder abuse.

And we will start four new pilot projects called Aging In Place.

The goal of these projects is to enable elderly individuals to remain in their homes and communities as long as possible by delaying or avoiding the need for institutional care through case management and in-home services.

TRANSPORTATION

For the last three years, I have urged Republicans and Democrats to work together with me in opening the door to major improvements in our state transportation system.

We must continue that effort.

Our transportation infrastructure is crucial to our state's economic well being.

But so far, we have been unable to reach consensus on how to move forward.

Consensus is crucial because the reality is that we are either going to move forward together, or we're not going to be able to move forward at all.

Fiscal responsibility is also crucial.

We must develop a plan that will not burden future generations with debt and will not endanger our state's solid bond rating.

But if we work together, we can find a solution, and I remain committed to working with you to do so.

AGRICULTURE

One of the doors we must fight—and fight hard—to keep open leads to new hope for our sagging farm economy.

Low prices at the market and severe weather conditions in many areas have been a devastating combination for Missouri citizens who are trying to make a living by farming.

I want to provide additional resources for our Department of Agriculture to help farmers better market their products and adopt innovative alternatives to traditional agricultural practices.

I am calling for a stronger investment in our Rural Economic Assistance Program to assist rural communities.

And I have called for the immediate formation of a Farm Crisis Response Task Force to review and identify current state and federal resources and regulations to assess how we may be able to help the plight of our family farmers.

CONCLUSION

Since this will be the last time I will come before you in this public setting, I want to thank you, the members of the Missouri General Assembly, for all we have been able to accomplish.

While we have made significant progress together, our work is far from finished.

I have outlined an ambitious agenda for this session, and we owe all Missourians our best efforts.

Before I leave this dais, I want to recognize some others as well.

I want to thank my family for their constant love and support—and particularly my wife Jean, a First Lady who is truly remarkable.

I want to thank our team of statewide elected officials for being just that—a team.

And I want to thank our cabinet.

I also want to give a very special thank you to another team—my staff--both past and present.

No Governor could be more blessed.

To our state workers who give their all every day to provide better service for this state—a big thank you to you.

Once again, I am recommending marketplace salary increases for our state employees.

The average state employee will receive approximately a four percent increase.

And finally, my thanks to the people of the State of Missouri.

Now before I leave this chamber, I want to introduce you to several excellent reasons why we entered public service and why we continue to serve.

These are members of the Tiger Pre-School in Lamar, and they are accompanied by the director of the facility, Colleen Ratcliff.

Tiger Pre-School serves 20 children in the morning and 20 in the afternoon and collaborates with the local Head Start Program to provide services to an additional 10 children.

It is linked with the Lamar school system and is located right across from the middle school.

Because the school district provides funding for professional development under a curriculum training program called Project Construct, Tiger Pre-School is helping to coordinate its services with the other two pre-schools in town and the local Head Start Program.

This is an important first.

But Tiger Pre-School is a first in itself.

The students who attend here would not be receiving early childhood care and education if it weren't for Tiger Pre-School.

And Tiger Pre-School would not be there if it had not been for the support of many of you.

Tiger Pre-School is one of the first new facilities to be established, thanks to House Bill 1519, which expanded our state's early childhood and education programs.

So now I want you to meet this fine group of youngsters who came all the way from Lamar to do a song that they've learned for you.

Ladies and gentlemen, here is our future.

In these eyes rests the vision of dreams unseen.

In these hands lie achievements yet to be realized.

And in these hearts burns the hope of a better Missouri to come.

May the Almighty guide our words and deeds in the days ahead as we go about our business...preparing the way for Missouri's children...by opening doors to a new century.

Thank you.

The Joint Session was dissolved by the Lieutenant Governor.

Speaker Gaw resumed the Chair.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TENTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 20, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Vicky Riback Wilson.

Prayer for the Country

Sovereign of the universe, mercifully receive our prayer for our land and its government. Let Your blessing pour out on this land and on all people who are occupied, in good faith, with the public needs. Instruct them from Your laws, enable them to understand Your principles of justice, so that peace and tranquility, happiness and freedom, might never turn away from our land.

Please, Wise One, waken Your spirit within all inhabitants of our land, and plant among the people of different backgrounds and faith who dwell here, love and community, peace and friendship. Uproot from their hearts all hatred and enmity, all jealousy and vying for supremacy. Therefore let our land be a blessing.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ELEVENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Gracious God, You give us this day.

Keep these men and women of the House, and all who work here with them, in Your care. Help them this day to keep in mind:

The poor, the hurting, those on the edge of society, the prisoner and the addict and those who live with confusion.

Bless this these lawmakers as they worry about the people of Missouri this day that You give to us.

And to You be glory and honor, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Amanda Auer and Jennifer Dietz.

The Journal of the tenth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWELFTH DAY, TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2000

Representative Auer in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

In the Hebrew Testament, Psalm 139, we read:

If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me and the light around me become night". Even the darkness is not dark to you. The night is as bright as the day, for darkness is a light for you.

We pray: All present God, loving parent God, let light shine through this House today, on the floor, in committee, in office, counsel, and discussion. Let any night or darkness we may experience today be flooded with the light of Your direction, Your support, Your warning, if needs be, Your truth. Let our considerations and negotiations begin in You and end in Your loving will, God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eleventh day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

THIRTEENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 26, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

I adapt this prayer from Celtic Prayers from Iona, by J. Philip Newell:

Your are the love of each living creature, O God.
You are the warmth of the rising sun.
You are the whiteness of the moon at night.
You are the life of the growing earth.
You are the strength of the waves of the sea.
Speak to us this day, O God.
Speak to us Your truth.
Dwell with us this day, O God.
Dwell with us in love. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

RESOLUTION

HR 141 was taken up by Representative Naeger and read.

House Resolution No. 141

WHEREAS, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize those Show-Me State college students who have attained notable success during four years of impressive sports competition while pursuing excellence in academics; and

WHEREAS, Scott Pingel, son of Wayne and Janet Pingel of Perryville, Missouri, is a senior at Westminster College in Fulton, where he enjoys an excellent reputation as the Saint Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Year and a GTE Academic All-American finalist; and

WHEREAS, Scott Pingel capped his stellar football career as a wide receiver for the Blue Jays by being named to the Hewlett-Packard Division III All-American first team, making him the only player to earn such distinction the past three seasons; and

WHEREAS, admirably coached by Conference Coach of the Year John Welty, Scott Pingel completed the 1999-2000 season by setting new NCAA all-divisions records for career receptions, career yardage, and career touchdown catches; and

WHEREAS, the final season of his college athletic career found Scott Pingel recording 136 receptions for 1,648 yards and 24 touchdowns, and experiencing the privilege to play in the Fifth Annual All-American Bowl at the Metrodome in Minneapolis; and

WHEREAS, arguably the greatest receiver statistically in NCAA history, Scott Pingel shattered performances by his predecessors when he entered into the record books career totals of 436 receptions, 6,108 yards, and 75 touchdown catches; and

WHEREAS, Scott Pingel tied the fifteen-year-long reception record during an early senior-year game against Illinois College before nearly 100 friends and relatives attending from his hometown and wearing "Great Scott" T-shirts who then saw him break the record in a later play and deliver the football to a referee for donation to the College Football Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, Scott Pingel recently experienced the high honor and the rare distinction of receiving the 1999 Melberger Award as the NCAA Division III Player of the Year, becoming the first wide receiver ever to earn this coveted accolade:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninetieth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the richly-deserved accomplishments of Scott Pingel during his college career and to congratulate him for his record-breaking and record-setting senior year of football at Westminster College; and

FOURTEENTH DAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

To You be glory and power, now and forever. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FIFTEENTH DAY, MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Heavenly Father, You can help bring unity from diversity, concord from discord, integrity from unreliability.

Today this House gathers together at the beginning of a new month. Rekindle the hope we have that our work here may serve the people of this great state. May our every effort today begin in You and move toward You as the final target. Finally, as we have enjoyed the victory of our state's Super Bowl giants, the St. Louis Rams, may we all move closer to final victory in You, heavenly God, our mercy, our purpose, our goal, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Paul Flo, Brian Kasmarzik, Jessica Merseal, Michele Loveless, Kevin Baisch, Ashley Smith, Natasha Blanks, Adam Dolan, Natalie Pigg, Melanie McKalip, Matt Pope, Sean Thost, Koty Hammond, Janel Malan, Jake Huskey, Ryan Solomon and Meagan Shanks.

The Journal of the fourteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

Good Morning,

The Missouri Election Laws 115.563 and 115.565, provide for filing a verified petition based on irregularities that occurred in a election. Subject to 115.637, section 3; Class Four election offenses were committed. False ballots were mailed to voters and the names of candidates were arranged in a way other than that authorized by law.

Documentary evidence is attached to the petition and testimonial evidence is available to offer procedural advice concerning the violations and specific irregularities regarding the Special Election held August 3, 1999.

Please reply, I remain

Sincerely,

/s/ Elvis Sonny Gibson

PETITION

Missouri Election Laws
115.563 - 115.565

TO: Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Kansas City Board of Election Commissioners, under the rules of the Missouri Election Laws in force during the Special Election for the 41st District seat held on August 3, 1999, under the authority of the Secretary of State, pursuant to Chapter 115 and Selected Constitutional Provisions; has caused the Special Election to be incorrigible due to unsavory practices in the Election Process. The practices were not Mistake of Fact. The effect of these practices effected the Absentee Voter and the absentee ballot determined by the combination of causes in the intent to mislead the Absentee Voter and irregularities that occurred in the election that contest the qualification of the candidate. This is an estoppel plea of the election violations according to the Missouri Election Law.

Class Four Offense 115.637

- (1) False official absentee ballots mailed to the voter,
- (2) Ballots mailed to the absentee voter absent of the candidates,
- (3) Candidates names/numeral order unauthorized by law.

Irregularities

- * Judges marking ballots at the polling location to indicate the ward and precinct on the day of the election.
- * Two candidates in the election with the same ballot number (14).
- * 41st District Candidates given wrong ballot numbers and listed by name in incorrect order

Elvis Sonny Gibson	15
Mark A. Hawthorne	16
Bobbie J. Campbell	17

- * Certification of the ballot by the Secretary of State was mailed to Kansas City Board of Election Commissioners on June 22, 1999

Melba J. Curls	14
Bobbie J. Campbell	15
Elvis Sonny Gibson	16
Mark A. Hawthorne	17

- * The false ballots were mailed to the Absentee Voter on July 1st.
- * The unopposed candidate of the 42nd District (#14), the opposed candidate of the 41st District (#14) shared the same number. The use of duplicate punch numbers is conduct which is prejudicial on the rights of opposed candidates, and deception to induce the voter to surrender their rights to vote for the candidate of their choice.

House Election Contest No. 2

September 15, 1999

The Honorable Steve Gaw
Speaker of the House
Missouri House of Representatives
State Capitol, Room 308A
Jefferson City, MO 65105

The filing of this petition is on behalf of the voters of Kansas City, Missouri, who would like to have an honest and fair election, and who have lost faith in our voting system. The Kansas City Board of Elections under the rules of Missouri Elections Laws (Chapter 115) in force during the August 3, 1999 Special Election, has caused the Special Election to be incorrigible due to unsavory practices. These practices effected the absentee and Election day ballots with the intent to mislead the voters and leave sufficient opportunity for election fraud to occur. The effect of these irregularities may have tainted the election and the count for the candidates and the issues.

We, The Reform Party, petition to contest the results of the August 3, 1999 Special Election under Missouri Laws 115.239, 115.245, 115.287, 115.289, 115.297, 115.423, 115.451, and 115.637.

115.239: Placement of party candidates on ballots. (See examples.)

115.245: Exact wording of the question certified by Secretary of State to appear on ballot. All questions to require a “YES” or “NO” response.

1. The attached photocopy of question #2 is in clear violation of this law.

115.287: Absentee Ballot, how delivered.

1. Statements by absentee voters from senior citizens building.
 - a. Received and returned ballots to apartment manager.
 - b. Some did not vote.
 - c. Received ballot from young man who returned later to pick them up.

115.289: Confidentiality of applications for absentee ballots, list available to authorized persons - free.

1. Ms. Sharon Turner refused on both September 8, 1999 and September 10, 1999 to give the list of applications mailed to absentee voters.

115.297: Precinct registers to show ballots received. Judges to be notified of late absentee ballots received.

1. Poll Judges were unable to determine who had voted absentee or what should be done if an absentee voter should revote without their knowledge.
2. Absentee voters shown in poll books was stamped: “Absentee ballots mailed to:”.

115.423: Ballot box, procedure for handling.

1. Witnesses observed ballot boxes were not sealed or locked when delivered for counting at Election Board on August 3, 1999.

115.451: Judges may read and record votes before polls close, when-

1. The law requires ballot boxes containing the voted ballots to be taken to a private area within the polling place.
2. The Kansas City Election Board has approximately six (6) satellite stations, at different locations than the polling places, with their own employees. Information from some poll judges who had delivered the sealed boxes to the satellite stations, stated that the boxes were unlocked and the votes counted by machines. This practice could easily be suspect.

115.637: Class Four election offenses. See #2, 3 and 7. (See attachments).

2. Printing, circulating, or causing to be printed or circulated, any false and fraudulent sample ballots which appear on their face to be designed as a fraud upon voters;
3. Purposefully giving a printed or written sample ballot to any qualified voter which is intended to mislead the voter;
7. On the part of any person authorized or employed to print official ballots, or any person employed in printing ballots, giving, delivering, or knowingly permitting to be taken any ballot to or by any person other than the official under whose direction the ballots are being printed, any ballot in any form other than that prescribed by law, or with unauthorized names, with names misspelled, or with the names of candidates arranged in any way other than that authorized by law;

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTEENTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

The Psalmist says:

For it was You, My God, who created my being...I thank You for the wonder of my being.
Psalm 139:13,14

We thank You, God, for creating our being, and for giving us the ability to be co-creators of this world with You. May we rid our state of those defects, which might mar Your work-----any of the “isms” which keep us apart in any way. May we continue to build those qualities which mirror Your city in the heavens, those traits which have made our state and our nation happy and great. May our work and play be done today with the joyful knowledge that You are in our heart, soul, and hands, that You are the heart, soul, and hands of our planet and of our universe. With gratefulness, may we say to You, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Sarah Brison.

The Journal of the fifteenth day was approved as corrected.

SECOND READING OF HOUSE BILLS

HB 1828 through HB 1847 were read the second time.

Speaker Gaw assumed the Chair.

Mr. Ryan Rippel, President of Boys' Nation, addresses the House:

It was a clear June morning. Just as the bright Missouri sunshine came across the sky and illuminated the Mid-Western landscape, some 960 young men from across this great state converged upon the campus of Central Missouri State University. With their arrival, these young men transformed the town of Warrensburg into a bustling center of government and politics - and they began what would become a week to shape a lifetime. In forming this Missouri Boys State we all proved that while we may have arrived as 960 intimidated, scared, and uncertain individuals, we could develop ties and bonds with the power to mold individuals into one united community. By the end of this week of politics and government, however, we also stumbled on to what I would dare say is the greatest characteristic of citizenship in Missouri and the United States. We found as young people that in Missouri and in these United States democracy does not simply rest in parchment or in the great marble temples of our land, but rather democracy is a chemical reaction that is expressed when one extends a hand in friendship to another. The strength of our state and our nation comes with the connections that form between individuals. I have witnessed this not only at Boys State, but also in my own personal life. When I was three years of age my father was killed in an automobile accident here in Missouri. His death brought with it many challenges to my family, but many lessons to me as a young son. I very quickly learned that in order to survive we must rely on others, we must form connections between ourselves and those around us, and that we must always carry with us examples of the type of people that we want to become. Ultimately, I learned that just as this Capitol was constructed one individual brick cemented to another individual brick to form a symbol of strength and unity, we as young people can come together to form a Boys State, our states can merge and form a union and we as citizens can come together and form a nation.

But, in my journey to Warrensburg and later to Washington to attend Boys Nation, I also learned a great deal about my fellow members of this generation.com. From my very first city meeting at Boys State to my final hug goodbye at Boys Nation, I found myself among some of the most passionate and enthusiastic leaders I have ever met. In fact, I believe that Larry King and Rush Limbaugh were part of the 1999 session of Boys Nation. Regardless of our differences in ideology or ethnic background, we all came together to find a cause and a love far greater than ourselves - that of America. With the example of the veterans who had sacrificed the comforts of home and in many cases their lives in defense of this nation, we as young people found connections with our past that quickly translated into our hopes and dreams for the future. There was one particular moment in Washington when all of this seemed to come together. Standing before the Vietnam War Memorial gazing into the names etched into what seems to be the midnight sky, I looked around and noticed the emotions of the individuals that surround me. Some weeping and crying as they located the name of a loved one, while others moved along in a sense of amazement at the magnitude of this monument to sacrifice. As I was standing there I reached out to touch a name on the wall, and as I extended my hand I noticed my own reflection looking right back at me. I saw that as I reached to connect with the name of that fallen soldier, I saw myself reaching out to my own reflection. To me this seemed as the perfect representation of these experiences with my fellow young people in Warrensburg and Washington. We had grown to see the example set by the patriots of decades past as means for us to connect with a deeper sense of self - to connect as individuals with the great sacrifices of the heroes of ages past and the abilities of the great leaders of our present time. It was at this moment that we saw ourselves as more than just generation.com, we saw ourselves as the next generation of patriots - ready to continue the battle for a better America. And so I say to you this morning, the state of our youth is strong, passionate, alive, and we are eager to form the bonds that make democracy work. As I discovered this summer and have seen within my own high school, the members of our generation.com are working to make a difference in the lives of others. They are striving each day to take back their schools from the threats of violence and many are even eager to become part of the political process that is centered here in Jefferson City. And in many cases it seems as if they are searching for a means to witness their own reflection becoming part of a greater whole. They search for that reflection in you as leaders. And so in closing I say that the strength of our state and our nation comes when we can look into one another and see our personal reflections transforming into a union between individuals - a connection that can bridge the gap of generations, ethnic backgrounds, and even differing beliefs and ideas.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

NINETEENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Loving God, lift from our hearts all that discourages, all cynicism, all that builds distrust of one another and destroys our faith in the people of Missouri. Give to the men and women of this House, and to the staff that supports them, a deep faith in our basic principles of democracy. Keep them working for the good of all, and particularly for the good of those whose needs are great.

Bless these men and women, keep them in Your Holy peace, for the sake of the work they are called to do. To You be glory and honor, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the eighteenth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTIETH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Gracious God, teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts to doing good. These men and women of the House, and the staff that supports them, want to do good.

Help them put personal gain aside and work so that their best sense of what is decent and fitting for Missouri will dominate in the business of this session.

Keep them also, lighthearted enough to laugh at all we place before them. To You be glory and grace, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the nineteenth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

- (a) One hundred fifty percent by July 1, 2001;
- (b) One hundred twenty-five percent by July 1, 2002; and
- (c) One hundred percent by July 1, 2003.

(2) Any adjustment applied to a single block of business shall not exceed the adjustment applied to all blocks of business by more than fifteen percent due to claims experience or health status of such block of

(2) A health insurer may nonrenew or discontinue health insurance coverage of an individual in the individual market based only on one or more of the following:

b. In the case of a discontinuation pursuant to subparagraph a. of this paragraph in the individual market, the insurer may not provide for the issuance of any health insurance coverage in the market and this state during the five-year period beginning on the date of discontinuation of the last health insurance coverage not so renewed.

(4) At the time of coverage renewal, a health insurance insurer may modify the health insurance coverage for a policy form offered to individuals in the individual market so long as such modification is consistent with state law and effective on a uniform basis among all individuals with that policy form.

Venue for such proceedings shall be in the circuit court of Cole County, Missouri. ANY ACTION MUST BE FILED WITHIN TWENTY DAYS FROM RECEIPT OF THIS NOTICE."

6. When more than one application for a hearing is filed with the administrative hearing commission, the administrative hearing commission may consolidate the applications into one proceeding to expedite the disposition of all relevant issues.

7. In all proceedings before the administrative hearing commission pursuant to this section, section 407.825 and section 621.053, RSMo, where the franchisor is required to give notice pursuant to subsection 4 of this section, the franchisor shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that good cause exists for its actions. JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Eternal Father, Your resources are available to all who ask. Forgive us for our lack of faith that makes us satisfied with a little, when we could have more.

Give us the faith to believe that no problem, no issue, is beyond You, greater than Your love. May this faith in Your counsel and Your guidance be present at each desk in this House.

Keep us in the joy of life, ready for the day, ready to weigh words and ideas. And to You be honor and glory. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Alex Hicks, Greg Mueller and Rebecca Price.

The Journal of the twenty-third day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

(2) Any amount of the difference, as calculated pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection, which is in excess of fifteen million dollars for any given fiscal year shall, subject to appropriation, be placed in the "Public Transit Fund", which is hereby created in the state treasury and shall consist of all moneys appropriated thereto pursuant to this subsection. The fund shall be administered by the state treasurer. All moneys in the fund in a given fiscal year shall be used solely for public transit purposes, as provided in this subsection, in succeeding fiscal years and shall be included in the fifteen million dollar limit for each succeeding fiscal year. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, no portion of the fund shall be transferred to the general revenue fund, and no appropriation to the fund shall lapse. To approve a public transit plan submitted by the state highways and transportation commission, the general assembly shall adopt a concurrent resolution approving such plan and shall appropriate moneys in an amount deemed necessary to implement such plan. The highways and transportation commission shall annually present to the general assembly a report regarding the implementation of any approved public transit plans;

(4) If, within sixty calendar days of the regular session immediately preceding the start of the fiscal year for which funds are sought for public transit purposes, the general assembly fails to approve a public transit plan submitted by the state highways and transportation commission, then the general assembly shall appropriate money in an amount equal to the difference calculated in subdivision (1) of this subsection to the public transit fund created in subdivision (2) of this subsection.

6. The provisions of subsections 3[,], and 4 [and 5] of this section shall not apply to appropriations from the fund to the highways and transportation commission and the state transportation department [or to appropriations to the department of revenue for motor vehicle fuel tax refunds under chapter 142, RSMo,] or to appropriations to the department of revenue for refunds or overpayments or erroneous payments from the state highways and transportation department fund.

7. All interest earned upon the state highways and transportation department fund shall be deposited in and to the credit of such fund and shall be included in the calculation of total state revenues [under] pursuant to subsections [4 and 5] 3 and 4 of this section.

8. Any balance remaining in [said] the fund after payment of [said] the costs described in this section shall be transferred to the state road bond and interest sinking fund.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 17

WHEREAS, Derrick Thomas' immense talent on the football field was matched by his caring and generous spirit in the Kansas City community; and

WHEREAS, in his eleven year career as a Kansas City Chief, Derrick Thomas established himself as one of the NFL's most dominant defensive players and feared pass rushers, and firmly etched his place in history as one of the Kansas City Chiefs best linebackers; and

WHEREAS, Derrick Thomas made nine Pro Bowl appearances, the most of any player in the illustrious history of the Kansas City Chiefs; established team career records for sacks, safeties and fumble recoveries during his career; and his twenty sacks in 1990 set a Chiefs single-season mark, with his seven-sack game in 1990 setting an NFL single-game record; and

WHEREAS, Derrick Thomas was named the Chiefs Most Valuable Player following the 1991 and 1994 seasons, won the 1994 Genuine Heroes Award and received the league's two most prestigious humanitarian awards: the 1993 NFL Man of the Year and the 1995 Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award for service to team, community and country; and

WHEREAS, as the son of an Air Force Captain, Derrick Thomas was five years old when his father's plane was shot down while it was returning from a mission in Vietnam on December 17, 1972. With his father declared legally dead in 1980 as a Vietnam MIA, Derrick Thomas had a special relationship with veterans. He delivered the keynote address at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial during the Memorial Day ceremony in 1993 and volunteered regularly at Kansas City's veterans' hospital; and

WHEREAS, the notable achievements of Derrick Thomas off the football field were equally remarkable to his achievements on the football field. Derrick started an inner-city reading program with his "Third and Long Foundation" ten years ago and as its founder read to children at local libraries each home Saturday during football season; he was the Kansas City Chief's United Way spokesperson; and he was designated by former President George Bush as the "832nd point of light" in the President's Thousand Points of Light campaign:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, do hereby instruct the State Highways and Transportation Commission and the Department of Transportation to take action immediately to name a section of Interstate 70 from Blue Ridge Cut Off at the George Brett Bridge on the west to Highway 291 on the east, the "Derrick Thomas Memorial Highway".

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Almighty Father, You are the glue which binds our world together into meaning. You help turn what might be absurdity into grace. Help these men and women today to continue to hope in and work for meaning and purpose in all their many affairs in conference, in meeting, in research, in consultation with aides and constituents. Help the myriad goings-on of this day come together into pattern and purpose.

For in the end, Lord, either with knowledge and will or not, You are the end and purpose of all we think, will, say, and do. May understanding that comfort, not anger us, with serenity, in the multiform activities of this day. You are God, the ultimate ground of all time that is and will be, this moment, this day, forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Megan Green and Patrick Green.

The Journal of the twenty-sixth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1644, Page 1, Section A, Line 3, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"169.050. 1. On and after the effective date of sections 169.010 to 169.140, all employees as defined in sections 169.010 to 169.141 of districts included in the retirement system thereby created shall be members of the system by virtue of their employment, except as provided by section 104.342, RSMo. Individuals who qualify as independent contractors under the common law and are treated as such by their employer shall not be considered employees for purposes of membership in or contributions to the retirement system.

2. Any person who becomes a member before the end of the school year next following the date on which the system becomes operative may claim credit for service rendered as an employee in Missouri prior to such operative date, or for service rendered in the armed forces of the United States during a period of war, the same as if the person were a teacher, provided the person was a teacher in Missouri at the time the person was inducted, by filing with the board of trustees, within such time as the board may specify, a complete and detailed record of the service for which credit is claimed, together with such supporting evidence as the board may require for verification of the record. To the extent that the board finds the record correct, it shall credit the claimant with prior service and shall notify the claimant of its decision, but the amount of such credit shall not exceed thirty years.

3. No prior service credit shall be granted to any person who becomes a member after the first year of the system's operation, except as provided in subsection 5 of this section unless that person's failure to become a member before or during that year was due either to service in the armed forces of the United States or to attendance at a recognized educational institution for professional improvement; provided, that the board of trustees may grant prior service credit to a teacher who taught prior to August 1, 1945, if the teacher returns to teaching before July 1, 1950, and if such teacher teaches in the public schools of Missouri not less than seven years after returning before retirement, or the board of trustees may grant prior service credit to a teacher who taught prior to August 1, 1945, if the teacher returns to teaching and teaches at least one-half of the number of years between July 1, 1946, and age sixty but not less than seven years after returning before retirement, except that a member who will have thirty-five or more years of teaching service in Missouri at retirement shall be required to teach not less than three years after returning and before retirement. A person serving in the armed forces of the United States shall have the same right to prior service credit as one who became a member before the end of the first year of the system's operation, if the person becomes a member within one year of the date of the person's discharge from such service or within one year of such date plus time spent as a student in a standard college or university in further preparation for service as a public school employee. A person attending a recognized educational institution for the person's professional improvement shall have the same right to prior service credit as one who became a member before the end of the first year of the system's operation, if the person becomes a member within three years following the date on which the system became operative, and within one year of the date on which the person's attendance at such institution ceased.

4. Membership shall be terminated by failure of a member to earn any membership credit as a public school employee under this system for five consecutive school years, by death, withdrawal of contributions, or retirement.

5. If a member withdraws or is refunded the member's contributions, the member shall thereby forfeit any creditable service the member may have; provided, however, if such person again becomes a member of the system, the person may elect to reinstate the creditable service forfeited at times of previous withdrawals or refunds. The reinstatement shall be effected by the member's paying to the retirement system with interest the total amount of accumulated contributions withdrawn by the member or refunded to the member with respect to the service being reinstated. A member may reinstate less than the total service previously forfeited, in accordance with rules promulgated by the board of trustees. The payment may be made over a period not longer than five years or the length of service to be reinstated whichever is longer, beginning from the date of election, or prior to retirement, whichever is earlier, and with interest on the unpaid balance; provided, however, that if a member is retired on disability before completing such payments, the balance due with interest may be deducted from the member's disability retirement allowance.

6. Any person who elected to purchase creditable service pursuant to section 169.055, 169.056 or 169.057 and failed to complete payment within the time allowed may again elect to purchase creditable service pursuant to those provisions, if the election is made before July 1, 1998. The election may include a purchase of creditable service for the same period for which the earlier election was made.

7. Any person who would be entitled to elect to purchase creditable service pursuant to section 169.055 for unpaid maternity or paternity leave except for the fact that the person returned to employment in a position covered by the retirement system more than five years after the end of the leave period may elect to purchase such creditable service if the election is made before July 1, 1998.

8. Any person who would be entitled to purchase creditable service pursuant to subsection 1 of section 169.055 except for the fact that the application was made on or after June 19, 1997, may elect to purchase such creditable service if the election is made before July 1, 1998.

9. Notwithstanding any provisions of this chapter to the contrary, any administrator who had been a member of the system and lost eligibility as a result of the discovery that the administrator was not the holder of a current valid Missouri certificate who subsequently obtained a Missouri certificate shall be reinstated as a member and permitted to retain all benefits accrued pursuant to RSMo. 169.010 to 169.141." ; and

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Holy One of History, You seem to plant deep within the human heart the desire for harmony and concord. You seem to give us energy to think, plan, work to build the better society - You plant in our unconscious dreams the vision of a community of accord. We have accomplished much, but still search for the reality of that dream here in our state of Missouri. Let the search and the work continue in these hallowed halls this day. Hold us true to these intimations of godliness which are our warp and woof. Help us build and plan in line with Your will. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Christopher Camp, Chance Vahle, Laura Goodpasture, Billie Branstetter, Tracy Fish, Jennifer Smith, Darrell Reynolds, Michael Carter, Jessica Hastings and Robert Crowley.

The Journal of the twenty-eighth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 23.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 23

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has required the use of reformulated motor fuel in many major urban centers of the nation, known as "non-attainment areas" for failure to attain air quality standards; and

WHEREAS, this reformulated motor fuel most often achieves the federal requirement for "oxygenated" components through inclusion of a substantial amount of methyl tertiary-butyl ether or MTBE; and

WHEREAS, motor fuels are often leaked into the ground surrounding a fuel station by leakage from underground storage tanks or splashing losses; and

WHEREAS, MTBE is more water-soluble than components in conventional gasoline; and

WHEREAS, MTBE is transported much more readily into aquifers used for drinking water supplies; and

WHEREAS, MTBE renders drinking water foul and unusable by humans; and

WHEREAS, MTBE has been used in reformulated motor fuel required throughout the St. Louis non-attainment area during the warm weather season beginning in 1999:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Missouri Senate, Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, that the Department of Natural Resources be instructed to assess the extent of contamination of ground and surface water in the St. Louis non-attainment area and the risk of future contamination in that area from continuing use of reformulated motor fuel containing MTBE and to report its findings to the General Assembly and Governor no later than April 15, 2000; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Governor and the Director of the Department of Natural Resources.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

WHEREAS, it is the obligation of Missouri citizens and tourists to help preserve this beauty; and

WHEREAS, while much attention has recently been focused on the "Adopt-A-Highway" program which is directed at collecting litter, more needs to be done to prevent littering; and

WHEREAS, the problem of littering is growing and prevention of littering is an obligation not only of Missouri citizens, but also of the tourists in the "Show Me State"; and

WHEREAS, keeping Missouri's roadsides beautiful is an immense and huge, expensive task:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, do hereby instruct the Missouri Highway and Transportation Commission and the Department of Transportation to take immediate action to ensure that signs of appropriate size, lettering and design stating the current maximum penalty for littering be placed along the highways of the state and that any out-of-date signs be replaced; and

Dear Lord, thank You for this day, we thank You for life, and the opportunity You have given each one of us to serve in this House today. Lord Jesus, we ask for wisdom and discernment and to know Your will, as we work in this legislative body. Your word tells us in Proverbs, that if we are out for wisdom and discernment, you will give it to us. We thank You for this promise. In Your name we pray, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Alyssa Richardson, Christopher Camp, Chance Vahle, Laura Goodpasture and Billie Branstetter.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-FIRST DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Lord, another week has begun. We turn to You again as we begin. Instill in each of us renewed dedication. Distill all our comings and goings into some coherent pattern. Forestall those personal bickerings and any of our hankerings after glory into remembrance of what we do here – which is to serve the people You have seen fit to offer to us. May the deliberations of this day begin in our peaceful remembrance of Your compassionate presence and proceed towards a better Missouri for us all. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Bishop George White and Lori Winkler.

Representative Crump moved for approval of the Journal of the thirtieth day.

Representative Marble raised an objection to the motion to approve the Journal, stating that the motions of Representatives Lakin, Ransdall and Relford, on page 390, were not valid motions.

The Chair requested the objection be submitted in writing.

Following the request of the chair, written objection was not received.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-SECOND DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 29, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Lord of all kindness, today may be a day when we say with the psalmist: "Those who harry me lie in wait for me all day, countless are those who attack me from the heights." (Psalm 56)

Rather, will You help to tune the instruments of our souls today to respond to that other harmonic - the inner presence of Your outstretched arm, beckoning serenity about our lives, our work, our world? In the affairs of this busy Tuesday, help to allay our fears and insecurities and sense also with the psalmist: "I put my trust in You, in God, whose word I praise, in God I put my trust and have no fear, what can mortal man do to me?" (Psalm 56)

May You be our God, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Our Gracious God, we pray for Your help. We know that prayer is not a substitute for work. And we are expected to do our work. And so we ask You to help us think clearly and to plan carefully.

As we work, give us a measure of patience fitting our need. As we plan, give us a measure of humility fitting humanity.

And in all we do, keep us listening to Your voice within our own hearts. Bless this House, and to You be glory and honor. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Elaina Griffo, Danielle Griffo, Joshua Allen, Silas Allen, Emily Allen, Allison Gardner, Sarah Jo Grissom, Trisha Counce, Tonya Linton, Alison Walls, Jane Clare Maners, Jacob Van Ausdall and Brenton Miller.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 6, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Almighty God, in this new week of service to each other and to You, help this House to answer even more fully the question, "What are the virtues of good governance?"

May our Representatives' hearts be pure and their minds clear, their purpose arise from inner strength and dedication, their goals in line with justice and truth. As this legislative session reaches its halfway time, give us all the courage to stay the course on the high road of impartiality and fair dealing, in all we do, plan, speak, and legislate. Facilitate this House, God of all that is good, today into all tomorrow. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Emily Vesser and Sylvia Price.

The Journal of the thirty-fourth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God of our families, our state, our nation, our world, grace these halls with Your friendship. We call today "Fat Tuesday". Let this day be fat in faith in You, fat in reliance on Your generous help, fat in a surfeit of generosity, justice, peace for the good of others.

Let our reveling be that we have the singular opportunity of being part of building the laws of our land, a privilege beyond our own ego needs. May we revel in the character behind our legislature and beyond any laws - the spirit of common human dignity and the bonds of mutual respect. To employ time and energy for that today, God, will make this day one of delight. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Cooper McCollum, Trey Crockett, Melissa Wergeles, Heather Sherrer, Erin Harlan, Lane Quinn, Dalton Fuemmeler, Jearmy McCubbins, Erika Camden, Sarah Petroff, Mike Gaspersic, Stephen Hobbs, Hannah Schnitzmeier and Shay Weaver.

The Journal of the thirty-fifth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 27.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 27

WHEREAS, Missouri producers must have readily available markets in order to remain competitive in the agriculture industry; and

WHEREAS, the ongoing trend of consolidation and mergers in American agriculture economy is having an adverse impact on Missouri farmers and ranchers; and

WHEREAS, farmers' and ranchers' concerns are highlighted by the recent court injunction on the purchase of Murphy Family Farms, Inc. assets in Missouri by Smithfield Foods, Inc.; and

WHEREAS, other Midwestern states have raised similar concerns about the same transaction and have received similar court rulings; and

WHEREAS, this transaction is but one example of the level of interest in antitrust issues particularly within the agricultural sector of the economy; and

WHEREAS, competition remains critical for agricultural producers for the inputs they purchase and the products they sell; and

WHEREAS, the absence of competitive markets not only hurts farmers but ultimately will hurt consumers as well; and

WHEREAS, these anti-competitive forces are not targeted at specific states, but are more regional, national and in some cases, international in nature; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri legislature believes Congress, the United States Department of Agriculture and the United States Department of Justice should do more on consolidation and concentration issues in the agricultural sector; and

WHEREAS, in the absence of action by Congress, several state legislatures are pursuing ways to combat the anti-competitive forces currently at work in the agriculture markets; and

WHEREAS, Missouri lawmakers' concerns are heightened by the importance of agriculture to Missouri's rural communities; and

WHEREAS, Missouri lawmakers believe that consolidation and concentration issues of this magnitude demand prompt attention by lawmakers and regulators at the federal level:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Senate of the Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby call upon the 106th Congress of the United States to immediately:

1. Expand the United States Department of Agriculture's role in evaluating agribusiness mergers and acquisitions;
2. Encourage the appointment of an Assistant Attorney General at the Department of Justice with the sole responsibility of handling agriculture mergers and acquisition;
3. Provide additional resources to expand the capability of the Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) to monitor, investigate and pursue the competitive implications of structural changes in the meat packing industry;
4. Support an increase in the staff of the Transportation, Energy and Agriculture section of the Department of Justice;
5. Prohibit the enforcement of confidentiality clauses in livestock production contracts and grain production contracts except to the extent that a legitimate trade secret is being protected;
6. Allow GIPSA to seek reparations for producers when a packer is found to be engaged in predatory or unfair practices;
7. Provide contract poultry growers the same protections as livestock producers by extending the powers of GIPSA to cover live poultry dealers;
8. Authorize a statutory trust for the protection of cash sellers to livestock dealers;

9. Consider any other measure that will lead to greater competition within the United States' agricultural sector; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly requests the United States Department of Agriculture to form a task force, a majority of the members being actual farmers and ranchers, to review and recommend changes in the Packers and Stockyards Act; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Missouri Congressional delegation, the United States Department of Agriculture, and the United States Department of Justice.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

On motion of Representative Crump, the House recessed until 3:00 p.m.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Today, Lord God, is Ash Wednesday. Whatever our religious affiliation, it is good for all of us to pause occasionally, and look a bit at our dark side, God. Help us to attune ourselves with those parts of ourselves which live in the shadow, and need to come to the light. Help us to still our souls - to go into the desert enough - to uncover that which is too proud, too selfish, too ego-centered.

The words, "You are dust, and unto dust you will return," can be a challenge towards commitment to this world and to our earthly lives which need unity with You. Help this House, Lord, find hope in a season of renewal. Thank You, God, for the time to return to You in all we do, work, and play. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

HOUSE RESOLUTION

HR 91, (2-24-00, pgs. 397 & 398) - Crawford

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Be merciful to this House this day. In You, God, dry bones are raised to life. Renew those whose lives have grown dry with lost expectations. In You, God, parched hearts find living water. Refresh those whose spirits are parched from lack of trust in their contacts with others, or from their being used by others.

God, in You the hungry feed upon the word of life. Nourish those who have fed on food alien to the loving and forgiving human spirit. Lord, in You, even the selfish are reconciled. Restore those weakened or broken in their bonds with You, and those who have used others for their own designs. Hear these words and pleas in this House, Lord, and remain with each of us now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Cieara Hart, Douye Aweke - Uge, Scott Wright, Tony Badra, Michelle Quirk, Jordan Hale, Kevin Tarpley, Darvee Graham, Michelle Cypret and Zuzie Jaouni.

The Journal of the thirty-seventh day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

THIRTY-NINTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 13, 2000

Creator God, we know of no better way to begin the work of another week than by rededicating our lives and energy to Your service. Help the men and women of the House, and those who work alongside them in the staff, to do their best for Missouri.

Bless their efforts on behalf of those whose needs are great, children, prisoners, the poor and the ill; so that by serving others they may know they serve You, the author and giver of all life.

You are the Hope of all; and to You be all glory and honor, forever. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

[CORRECTED]

FORTY-SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

We come in prayer to You, Lord of Life. You never need to sleep or rest, or take back any word, to apologize for any rash act, to correct any message. Have patience with us, and deliver us from a lack of patience with one another.

Bless the members of this House, and those who support and work with them. Guard them against allowing personal interests to replace the interests of the people of our state. And to You be honor and glory, forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

HOUSE RESOLUTION

HR 91, (2-24-00, pgs. 397 & 398) - Crawford

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FORTY-THIRD DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 27, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

O Lord of All, Your will for us is to know the way, to do the truth and to live the full life. The men and women of this House know the clamor of many voices in their ears, a tugging at the sleeve, a constant drumbeat of self-serving special interests not in tune with the common interest.

Help these called by the people, to stand for that which they understand to be in the best interest of all. In the middle of the noise and clamor, give to these men and women a desire to hear Your voice....to know the way, to do the truth and to live the full life. To You be glory and honor forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Meredith Gibbons, Kara Evens, John Cumpston, James Carver, Jr., Michael S. Marconett, Dustin Osborn and Philip Rock.

The Journal of the forty-second day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

HOUSE RESOLUTION

HR 91, (2-24-00, pgs. 397 & 398) - Crawford

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FORTY-FOURTH DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Heavenly Father, God of Law and Love, give us Your blessing and hear our prayers.

We look around Your creation, and behold, our surroundings are changing from the browns and grays of Winter to the panoply of colors marking rebirth, growth, and life. So may we, in spirit and in truth.

Our legislative session is almost three-fourths over. As the crunch of the last days' work lays heavy on these Representatives' shoulders, as nerves become frayed and tempers short, may we, at least briefly, attend to our state around us coming back to vegetative life, and may we take heart. You are here also, in our hearts and in our bones, bringing Your law through bud, to blossom, to fruition.

We claim Your sunshine and moisture nourishing us in the soil of Your care and love here, now and always. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1172, 1501, 1633, 1440, 1634, 1177 & 1430, Page 4, Section 407.020, Line 15, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"407.025. 1. Any person who purchases or leases [goods or services] merchandise primarily for personal, family or household purposes and thereby suffers an ascertainable loss of money or property, real or personal, as a result of the use or employment by another person of a method, act or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020, may bring a private civil action in either the circuit court of the county in which the seller or lessor resides or in which the transaction complained of took place, to recover actual damages. The court may, in its discretion, award punitive damages and may award to the prevailing party attorney's fees, based on the amount of time reasonably expended, and may provide such equitable relief as it deems necessary or proper.

2. Persons entitled to bring an action under subsection 1 of this section may, if the unlawful method, act or practice has caused similar injury to numerous other persons, institute an action as representative or representatives of a class against one or more defendants as representatives of a class, and the petition shall allege such facts as will show that these persons or the named defendants specifically named and served with process have been fairly chosen and adequately and fairly represent the whole class, to recover damages as provided for in subsection 1 of this section. The plaintiff shall be required to prove such allegations, unless all of the members of the class have entered their appearance, and it shall not be sufficient to prove such facts by the admission or admissions of the defendants who have entered their appearance. In any action brought under this section, the court may in its discretion order, in addition to damages, injunction or other equitable relief and reasonable attorney's fees.

3. An action may be maintained as a class action in a manner consistent with Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Missouri rule of civil procedure 52.08 to the extent such state rule is not inconsistent with the federal rule if:

- (1) The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;
- (2) There are questions of law or fact common to the class;
- (3) The claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; and
- (4) The representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and, in addition
- (5) The prosecution of separate action by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - (a) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class; or
 - (b) Adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; or
- (6) The party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or
- (7) The court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include:
 - (a) The interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
 - (b) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class;
 - (c) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum;
 - (d) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

4. (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this subdivision may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.

(2) In any class action maintained under subdivision (7) of subsection 3, the court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that:

- (a) The court will exclude him in the class if he so requests by a specified date;
 - (b) The judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and
 - (c) Any member who does request exclusion may, if he desires, enter an appearance through his counsel.
- (3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (5) of subsection 3 or subdivision (6) of subsection 3, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (7) of subsection 3, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subdivision (2) of subsection 4 was directed, and who have requested exclusion, and whom the court finds to be members of the class.

(4) When appropriate an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this section shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

5. In the conduct of actions to which this section applies, the court may make appropriate orders:

(1) Determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;

(2) Requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;

(3) Imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors;

(4) Requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly;

(5) Dealing with similar procedural matters.

6. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs.

7. Upon commencement of any action brought under subsection 1 of this section, the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall inform the clerk of the court in which such action is brought, on forms to be provided by such clerk, that the action is brought under this section. The clerk of the court shall forthwith inform the attorney general of the commencement of such action, together with a copy of the complaint or other initial pleading, and, upon entry of any judgment or decree in the action, the clerk shall mail a copy of such judgment or decree to the attorney general.

8. Any permanent injunction, judgment or order of the court made under section 407.100 shall be prima facie evidence in an action brought under this section that the respondent used or employed a method, act or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020."; and

If an applicant does not appear for the final examination before the board within five years from the date of his or her graduation from an accredited institution of mortuary science education, his or her registration as a student embalmer shall be automatically canceled;

(5) Upon due examination administered by the board, is possessed of a knowledge of the subjects of embalming, anatomy, pathology, bacteriology, mortuary administration, chemistry, restorative art, together with statutes, rules and regulations governing the care, custody, shelter and disposition of dead human bodies and the transportation thereof or has passed the national board examination of the Conference of Funeral Service Examining Boards. If any applicant fails to pass the state examination, he or she may retake the examination at the next regular examination meeting. The applicant shall notify the board office of his or her desire to retake the examination at least thirty days prior to the date of the examination. Each time the examination is retaken, the applicant shall pay a new examination fee in an amount established by the board;

(6) Has been employed full time in funeral service in a licensed funeral establishment and has personally embalmed at least twenty-five dead human bodies under the personal supervision of an embalmer who holds a current and valid Missouri embalmer's license or an embalmer who holds a current and valid embalmer's license in a state with which the Missouri board has entered into a reciprocity agreement during an apprenticeship of not less than twelve consecutive months. "Personal supervision" means that the licensed embalmer shall be physically present during the entire embalming process in the first six months of the apprenticeship period and physically present at the beginning of the embalming process and available for consultation and personal inspection within a period of not more than one hour in the remaining six months of the apprenticeship period. All transcripts and other records filed with the board shall become a part of the board files.

4. If the applicant does not appear for oral examination within the five years after his or her graduation from an accredited institution of mortuary science education, then he or she must file a new application and no fees paid previously shall apply toward the license fee.

5. Examinations required by this section and section 333.042 shall be held at least twice a year at times and places fixed by the board. The board shall by rule and regulation prescribe the standard for successful completion of the examinations.

6. Upon establishment of his or her qualifications as specified by this section or section 333.042, the board shall issue to the applicant a license to practice funeral directing or embalming, as the case may require, and shall register the applicant as a duly licensed funeral director or a duly licensed embalmer. Any person having the qualifications required by this section and section 333.042 may be granted both a license to practice funeral directing and to practice embalming.

7. The board shall, upon request, waive any requirement of this chapter and issue a temporary funeral director's license, valid for six months, to the surviving spouse or next of kin or the personal representative of a licensed funeral director, or to the spouse, next of kin, employee or conservator of a licensed funeral director disabled because of sickness, mental incapacity or injury.

333.042. 1. Every person desiring to enter the profession of funeral directing in this state shall make application with the state board of embalmers and funeral directors and pay the current application and examination fees. Applicants not entitled to a license [under] pursuant to section 333.051 shall serve an apprenticeship for at least twelve months in a funeral establishment licensed for the care and preparation for burial and transportation of the human dead in this state or in another state which has established standards for admission to practice funeral directing equal to, or more stringent than, the requirements for admission to practice funeral directing in this state. The applicant shall devote at least fifteen hours per week to his or her duties as an apprentice under the supervision of a Missouri licensed funeral director. Such applicant shall submit proof to the board, on forms provided by the board, that the applicant has arranged and conducted ten funeral services during the applicant's apprenticeship under the supervision of a Missouri licensed funeral director. Upon completion of the apprenticeship, the applicant shall appear before the board to be tested on the applicant's legal and practical knowledge of funeral directing, funeral home licensing, preneed funeral contracts and the care, custody, shelter, disposition and transportation of dead human bodies. Upon acceptance of the application and fees by the board, an applicant shall have twenty-four months to successfully complete the requirements for licensure found in this section or the application for licensure shall be canceled.

2. If a person applies for a limited license to work only in a funeral establishment which is licensed only for cremation, including transportation of dead human bodies to and from the funeral establishment, he or she shall make application, pay the current application and examination fee and successfully complete the [written] Missouri law examination [pursuant to subsection 1 of this section; however, he is]. He or she shall be exempt from the [six-month internship, six-month] twelve-month apprenticeship and the practical examination before the board. If a person has a limited license issued pursuant to this subsection, he or she may obtain a full funeral director's license if he or she fulfills the [internship,] apprenticeship and [practical knowledge test requirements of subsection 1 of this section] successfully completes the funeral director practical examination.

3. If an individual is a Missouri licensed embalmer or has graduated from an institute of mortuary science education accredited by the American Board of Funeral Service Education or any successor organization recognized by the United States Department of Education for Funeral Service Education, or has successfully completed a course of study in funeral directing offered by a college accredited by a recognized national, regional or state accrediting body and approved by the state board of embalmers and funeral directors, and desires to enter the profession of funeral directing in this state, the individual shall comply with all the requirements for licensure as a funeral director pursuant to subsection 1 of section 333.041 and subsection 1 of this section; however, the individual is exempt from the twelve-month apprenticeship required by subsection 1 of this section.

333.061. 1. No funeral establishment shall be operated in this state unless the owner or operator thereof has a license issued by the board.

2. A license for the operation of a funeral establishment shall be issued by the board, if the board finds:

(1) That the establishment is under the general management and the supervision of a duly licensed funeral director;

(2) That all embalming performed therein is performed by or under the direct supervision of a duly licensed embalmer;

(3) That any place in the funeral establishment where embalming is conducted contains a preparation room with a sanitary floor, walls and ceiling, and adequate sanitary drainage and disposal facilities including running water, and complies with the sanitary standard prescribed by the department of health for the prevention of the spread of contagious, infectious or communicable diseases;

(4) Each funeral establishment shall have available in the preparation or embalming room a register book or log which shall be available at all times in full view for the board's inspector and the name of each body embalmed, place, if other than at the establishment, the date and time that the embalming took place, the name and signature of the embalmer and [his] the embalmer's license number shall be noted in the book; and

(5) The establishment complies with all applicable state, county or municipal zoning ordinances and regulations.

3. The board shall grant or deny each application for a license [under] pursuant to this section within thirty days after it is filed[, and no prosecution of any person who has filed an application for such license for violation of this section shall be maintained unless it is shown that his application was duly denied by the board and that he was duly notified thereof]. The applicant may request in writing up to two thirty-day extensions of the application, provided the request for an extension is received by the board prior to the expiration of the thirty-day application or extension period.

4. Licenses shall be issued [under] pursuant to this section upon application and the payment of a funeral establishment fee and shall be renewed at the end of the licensing period on the establishment's renewal date.

5. The board may refuse to renew or may suspend or revoke any license issued [under] pursuant to this section if it finds, after hearing, that the funeral establishment does not meet any of the requirements set forth in this section as conditions for the issuance of a license, or for the violation by the owner of the funeral establishment of any of the provisions of section 333.121. No new license shall be issued to the owner of a funeral establishment or to any corporation controlled by such owner for three years after the revocation of the license of the owner or of a corporation controlled by the owner. Before any action is taken [under] pursuant to this subsection the procedure for notice and hearing as prescribed by section 333.121 shall be followed.

333.081. 1. Each license issued to a funeral director or embalmer [under] pursuant to this chapter shall expire unless renewed on or before the renewal date. The board may, however, provide for the renewal of licenses held by individuals who are not actively engaged in practice and who are over sixty-five years of age without fee. The board shall renew any such license upon due application for renewal and upon the payment of the renewal fee, except that no license shall expire during the period when the holder thereof is actively engaged in the military service of the United States. Any licensee exempted from the renewal of his or her license because of military service shall, before beginning practice in this state after leaving military service, apply for and pay the renewal fee for the current licensing period.

2. When renewing a funeral director's or embalmer's license the licensee shall specify the address of the funeral establishment at which he or she is practicing or proposes to practice and shall notify the board of any termination of his or her connection therewith. The licensee shall notify the board of any new employment or connection with a funeral establishment of a permanent nature. If the licensee is not employed at or connected with a funeral establishment he shall notify the board of his or her permanent address.

3. [The board shall not renew any license more than ninety days after the renewal date but shall notify the licensee that his license has expired.] The holder of an expired license shall be issued a new license by the board within two years of the renewal date after he or she has paid delinquent renewal fees. Any license not renewed within two years shall be void.

4. Failure of the licensee to receive the renewal notice shall not relieve the licensee of the duty to pay the renewal fee and renew his or her license."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-FIFTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Our Father in Heaven, give to the men and women of this House a heart for that which lies before them today. If that which we intend for the day makes us uncomfortable in Your presence, take it from us.

If what we intend is for the good, then confirm us in that. Keep these men and women, and all who work with them, quick of foot, light of heart and agile of mind; so, with gladness, they may do all that You bless. To You be glory and honor forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Trevor W. Howell, Nathaniel Witt, Adam Deis, Mary Liese, Sarah Liese, Jareth Clemensen, Austin O'Bryan and Lauren Bromley.

The Journal of the forty-fourth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 3, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Almighty God, You are the Holy one and the just one. Make Your dwelling in this Chamber today. May fellowship with Your spirit continue to open wide the minds and hearts of these Representatives, aligning these men and women with Your good, and giving them the power to live that out - even to bury that spirit deep in the heart of these laws to be passed. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Abigayle Knaebel.

The Journal of the forty-sixth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 4, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Lord of all tenderness, Lord of all might, support this place of democracy and leadership. May these men and women share in Your power - the power of creative love. May these women and men have a portion of Your justice - a justice whose roots crave equality and dignity to each human being. Let these men and women know the spirit of Your stewardship of all the universe - and be moved to renew their care and concern for our little corner of Your world. We are one in You, and yet independent in great diversity, sensing the interdependence of all things and all peoples. So may we live today and always. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILL

HCS HB 1305, relating to rehabilitation of abandoned property, was taken up by Representative Rizzo.

Representative Rizzo offered HS HCS HB 1305.

Representative Hanaway raised a point of order that HS HCS HB 1305 goes beyond the scope of the bill.

The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken.

Representative Kelley (47) offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1305, Page 6, Section 82.1050, Line 17, by inserting at the end of said section the following:

“214.030. The cemetery lots owned by such county, city, town or village shall be conveyed by deed signed by the mayor or commissioner of said county, city, town or village, duly attested by the [city] clerk of such county, city, town or village, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, and shall vest in the purchaser, his or her heirs and assigns, a right in fee simple to such lot for the sole purpose of interment [under] pursuant to the regulations of the council or commission, except that such fee simple right may be revested in the county, city, town or village pursuant to section 214.035.

214.035. 1. For purposes of this section, the term “lot owner” means the purchaser of the cemetery lot or such purchaser’s heirs, administrators, trustees, legatees, devisees, or assigns.

2. Whenever a county, city, town or village has acquired real estate for the purpose of maintaining a cemetery or has acquired a cemetery from a cemetery association, and such county, city, town or village or its predecessor in title has conveyed any platted lot or designated piece of ground within the area of such cemetery, and the governing body of such county, city, town or village is the governing body of such cemetery pursuant to section 214.010, the title to any conveyed platted lots or designated pieces of ground, other than ground in which dead human remains are actually buried and all ground within two feet thereof, may be revested in the county, city, town or village in the following manner and subject to the following conditions:

(1) No interment shall have been made in the lot and the title to such lot shall have been vested in the present owner for a period of at least fifty years prior to the commencement of any proceedings pursuant to this section;

(2) If the lot owner of any cemetery lot is a resident of the county where the cemetery is located, the governing body shall cause to be served upon such lot owner a notice that proceedings have been initiated to revest the title of such lot in the county, city, town or village and that such lot owner may within the time provided by the notice file with the clerk or other officer performing the duties of clerk of such county, city, town or village, as applicable, a statement in writing explaining how rights in the cemetery lot were acquired and such person's desire to claim such rights in the lot. The notice shall be served in the manner provided for service of summons in a civil case and shall provide a period of not less than thirty days in which the statement can be filed. If the governing body ascertains that the statement filed by the lot owner is correct and the statement contains a claim asserting the rights of the lot owner in the lot, all proceedings by the governing body to revest title of the lot in the county, city, town or village shall be null and void and such proceedings shall be summarily terminated by the governing body as to the lots identified in the statements;

(3) If it is determined by the return of the sheriff of the county in which the cemetery is located that the lot owner is not a resident of the county and cannot be found in the county, the governing body may cause the notice required by subdivision (2) of this subsection to be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the county, city, town or village. Such notice shall contain a general description of the title revestment proceedings to be undertaken by the governing body pursuant to the section, lot numbers and descriptions and lot owners' names. In addition, the notice shall notify the lot owner that such lot owner may, within the time provided, file with the clerk or other officer performing the duties of a clerk a statement setting forth how such lot owner acquired rights in the cemetery lot and that such lot owner desires to assert such rights. If the governing body ascertains that the statement filed by the lot owner is correct and the statement contains a claim asserting the rights of the lot owner in the lot, all proceedings by the governing body to revest title to the lot in the county, city, town or village shall be null and void and such proceedings shall be summarily terminated by the governing body as to the lots identified in the statement;

(4) All notices, with proofs of service, mailing and publication of such notices, and all ordinances or other resolutions adopted by the governing body relative to these revestment proceedings shall be made a part of the records of such governing body;

(5) Upon expiration of the period of time allowed for the filing of statements by lot owners as contained in the notice served personally, by mail or published, all parties who fail to file with the clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk in such county, city, town or village, their statement asserting their rights in the cemetery lots shall be deemed to have abandoned their rights and claims in the lot, and the governing body may bring an action in the circuit court of the county in which the cemetery is located against all lot owners in default, joining as many parties so in default as it may desire in one action, to have the rights of the parties in such lots or parcels terminated and the property restored to the governing body of such cemetery free of any right, title or interest of all such defaulting parties or their heirs, administrators, trustees, legatees, devisees or assigns. Such action in all other respects shall be brought and determined in the same manner as ordinary actions to determine title to real estate;

(6) In all such cases the fact that the grantee, holder or lot owner has not, for a term of more than fifty successive years, had occasion to make an interment in the cemetery lot and the fact that such grantee, holder or lot owner did not upon notification assert a claim in such lot, pursuant to this section, shall be prima facie evidence that the party has abandoned any rights such party may have had in such lot;

(7) A certified copy of the judgments in such actions quieting title may be filed in the office of the recorder of deeds in and for the county in which the cemetery is situated;

(8) All notices and all proceedings pursuant to this section shall distinctly describe the portion of such cemetery lot unused for burial purposes and the county, city, town or village shall leave sufficient ingress to, and egress from, any grave upon the lot, either by duly dedicated streets or alleys in the cemetery, or by leaving sufficient amounts of the unused portions of the cemetery for such purposes;

(9) This section shall not apply to any lot in any cemetery where a perpetual care contract has been entered into between such cemetery, the county, city, town or village and the owner of such lot;

(10) Compliance with the terms of this section shall as fully revest the county, city, town or village with, and divest the lot owner of record of, the title to such portions of such cemetery lot unused for burial purposes as though the lot had never been conveyed to any person, and such county, city, town or village, shall have, hold and enjoy such unclaimed portions of such lots for its own uses and purposes, subject to the laws of this state, and to the charter, ordinances and rules of such cemetery and the county, city, town or village.”; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Kelley (47), House Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Representative Gambaro offered House Amendment No. 2.

In the event of the refusal of all lienholders of record to serve as receiver or in the absence of any lienholders of record, the local housing corporation that is established to promote development and conservation in the area in which such property that is the subject of receivership is located, if any, shall be given the right of first refusal to serve as receiver for any residential property consisting of four units or less; provided that, if no local housing corporation exists for such area, then the local neighborhood association shall be given such right of first refusal.

2. The court may allow a receiver reasonable and necessary expenses, payable from the rent moneys.

5. The receiver shall with all reasonable speed remove all of the housing code violations which constitute a nuisance as found by the court, and may make other improvements to effect a rehabilitation of the property in such fashion as is consistent with maintaining safe and habitable conditions over the remaining useful life of the property. The receiver shall have the power to let contracts therefor, in accordance with the provisions of local laws, ordinances, rules and regulations applicable to contracts.

6. The receiver may with the approval of the circuit court borrow money against, and encumber, the property as security therefor in such amounts as may be necessary to carry out his or her responsibilities pursuant to sections 441.500 to 441.643. 7. In addition to issuance of receiver certificates, the receiver may pledge the rentals from the property and borrow or encumber the property on the strength of the rental income.

8. 9. For the purposes of this section, "local housing corporation" shall mean only those local housing corporations established prior to April 28, 1999."; and

Except in no case shall the total economic benefit of the combined federal and state tax savings to the taxpayer exceed the amount contributed by the taxpayer during the tax year;

Such credit shall not exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars annually except as provided in subdivision (5) of this subsection. No tax credit shall be approved for any bank, bank and trust company, insurance company, trust company, national bank, savings association, or building and loan association for activities that are a part of its normal course of business. Except as otherwise provided for proposals approved pursuant to section 32.111, 32.112 or 32.117, in no event shall the total amount of all other tax credits allowed pursuant to sections 32.100 to 32.125 exceed thirty-two million dollars in any one fiscal year, of which six million shall be credits allowed pursuant to section 135.460, RSMo. Whenever such investment is made in the form of an equity investment or a loan, as opposed to a donation alone, tax credits may be claimed only where the loan or equity investment is accompanied by a donation which is eligible for federal income tax charitable deduction, and where the total value of the tax credits herein plus the value of the federal income tax charitable deduction is less than or equal to the value of the donation. Any tax credit not used in the period for which the credit was approved may be carried over the next ten succeeding calendar or fiscal years until the full credit has been allowed. If the affordable housing units or market rate housing units in distressed communities for which a tax is claimed are within a larger structure, parts of which are not the subject of a tax credit claim, then expenditures applicable to the entire structure shall be reduced on a prorated basis in proportion to the ratio of the number of square feet devoted to the affordable housing units or market rate housing units in distressed communities, for purposes of determining the amount of the tax credit. The total amount of tax credit granted for programs approved pursuant to section 32.111 for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1991, shall not exceed two million dollars, to be increased by no more than two million dollars each succeeding fiscal year, until the total tax credits that may be approved reaches ten million dollars in any fiscal year;

(2) For any year during the compliance period indicated in the land use restriction agreement, the owner of the affordable housing rental units for which a credit is being claimed shall certify to the commission that all tenants renting claimed units are income eligible for affordable housing units and that the rentals for each claimed unit are in compliance with the provisions of sections 32.100 to 32.125. The commission is authorized, in its discretion, to audit the records and accounts of the owner to verify such certification;

(3) In the case of owner-occupied affordable housing units, the qualifying owner occupant shall, before the end of the first year in which credits are claimed, certify to the commission that the occupant is income eligible during the preceding two years, and at the time of the initial purchase contract, but not thereafter. The qualifying owner occupant shall further certify to the commission, before the end of the first year in which credits are claimed, that during the compliance period indicated in the land use restriction agreement, the cost of the affordable housing unit to the occupant for the claimed unit can reasonably be projected to be in compliance with the provisions of sections 32.100 to 32.125. Any succeeding owner occupant acquiring the affordable housing unit during the compliance period indicated in the land use restriction agreement shall make the same certification;

(4) If at any time during the compliance period the commission determines a project for which a proposal has been approved is not in compliance with the applicable provisions of sections 32.100 to 32.125 or rules promulgated therefor, the commission may within one hundred fifty days of notice to the owner either seek injunctive enforcement action against the owner, or seek legal damages against the owner representing the value of the tax credits, or foreclose on the lien in the land use restriction agreement, selling the project at a public sale, and paying to the owner the proceeds of the sale, less the costs of the sale and less the value of all tax credits allowed herein. The commission shall remit to the director of revenue the portion of the legal damages collected or the sale proceeds representing the value of the tax credits. However, except in the event of intentional fraud by the taxpayer, the proposal's certificate of eligibility for tax credits shall not be revoked.

4. For proposals approved pursuant to section 32.112, the amount of the tax credit shall not exceed fifty-five percent of the total amount contributed to a neighborhood organization by business firms. Any tax credit not used in the period for which the credit was approved may be carried over the next ten succeeding calendar or fiscal years until the full credit has been allowed. The total amount of tax credit granted for programs of neighborhood organizations defined pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subdivision (13) of section 32.105 approved pursuant to section 32.112 shall not exceed one million dollars for each fiscal year and the total amount of tax credit granted for programs of neighborhood organizations defined pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision (13) of section 32.105 approved pursuant to section 32.112 shall not exceed five million dollars per fiscal year for fiscal years 2002 to 2006.

5. The total amount of tax credits used for market rate housing in distressed communities pursuant to sections 32.100 to 32.125 shall not exceed thirty percent of the total amount of all tax credits authorized pursuant to sections 32.111 and 32.112.

House Amendment No. 13

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1677, 1675 & 1676, Page 15, Section 455.050, Line 14, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"455.085. 1. When a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe a party has committed a violation of law amounting to abuse or assault, as defined in section 455.010, against a family or household member, the officer may arrest the offending party whether or not the violation occurred in the presence of the arresting officer. When the officer declines to make arrest pursuant to this subsection, the officer shall make a written report of the incident completely describing the offending party, giving the victim's name, time, address, reason why no arrest was made and any other pertinent information. Any law enforcement officer subsequently called to the same address within a twelve-hour period, who shall find probable cause to believe the same offender has again committed a violation as stated in this subsection against the same or any other family or household member, shall arrest the offending party for this subsequent offense. The primary report of nonarrest in the preceding twelve-hour period may be considered as evidence of the defendant's intent in the violation for which arrest occurred. The refusal of the victim to sign an official complaint against the violator shall not prevent an arrest under this subsection.

2. When a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a party, against whom a protective order has been entered and who has notice of such order entered, has committed an act of abuse in violation of such order, the officer shall arrest the offending party-respondent whether or not the violation occurred in the presence of the arresting officer. Refusal of the victim to sign an official complaint against the violator shall not prevent an arrest under this subsection.

3. When an officer makes an arrest he is not required to arrest two parties involved in an assault when both parties claim to have been assaulted. The arresting officer shall attempt to identify and shall arrest the party he believes is the primary physical aggressor. The term "primary physical aggressor" is defined as the most significant, rather than the first, aggressor. The law enforcement officer shall consider any or all of the following in determining the primary physical aggressor:

- (1) The intent of the law to protect victims of domestic violence from continuing abuse;
- (2) The comparative extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating fear of physical injury;
- (3) The history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

No law enforcement officer investigating an incident of family violence shall threaten the arrest of all parties for the purpose of discouraging requests or law enforcement intervention by any party. Where complaints are received from two or more opposing parties, the officer shall evaluate each complaint separately to determine whether he should seek a warrant for an arrest.

4. In an arrest in which a law enforcement officer acted in good faith reliance on this section, the arresting and assisting law enforcement officers and their employing entities and superiors shall be immune from liability in any civil action alleging false arrest, false imprisonment or malicious prosecution.

5. When a person against whom an order of protection has been entered fails to surrender custody of minor children to the person to whom custody was awarded in an order of protection, the law enforcement officer shall arrest the respondent, and shall turn the minor children over to the care and custody of the party to whom such care and custody was awarded.

6. The same procedures, including those designed to protect constitutional rights, shall be applied to the respondent as those applied to any individual detained in police custody.

7. A violation of the terms and conditions, with regard to abuse, stalking, child custody, communications or entrance upon the premises of the petitioner's dwelling unit, of an ex parte order of protection of which the respondent has notice, shall be a class A misdemeanor unless the respondent has previously pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of violating an ex parte order of protection or a full order of protection within five years of the date of the subsequent violation, in which case the subsequent violation shall be a class D felony. Evidence of prior pleas of guilty or findings of guilt shall be heard by the court out of the presence of the jury prior to submission of the case to the jury. If the court finds the existence of such prior pleas of guilty or finding of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall decide the extent or duration of sentence or other disposition and shall not instruct the jury as to the range of punishment or allow the jury to assess and declare the punishment as a part of its verdict.

8. A violation of the terms and conditions, with regard to abuse, stalking, child custody, communications or entrance upon the premises of the petitioner's dwelling unit, of a full order of protection shall be a class A misdemeanor, unless the respondent has previously pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of violating an ex parte order of protection or a full order of protection within five years of the date of the subsequent violation, in which case the subsequent violation shall be a class D felony. Evidence of prior pleas of guilty or findings of guilt shall be heard by the court out of the presence of the jury prior to submission of the case to the jury. If the court finds the existence of such prior plea of guilty or finding of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall decide the extent or duration of the sentence or other disposition and shall not instruct the jury as to the range of punishment or allow the jury to assess and declare the punishment as a part of its verdict. For the purposes of this subsection, in addition to the notice provided by actual service of the order, a party is deemed to have notice of an order of protection if the law enforcement officer responding to a call of a reported incident of abuse or violation of an order of protection presented a copy of the order of protection to the respondent.

9. Good faith attempts to effect a reconciliation of a marriage shall not be deemed tampering with a witness or victim tampering under section 575.270, RSMo.

10. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as creating a private cause of action for damages to enforce the provisions set forth herein."; and

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-NINTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God of all forbearance, in the beginning of this day's work, we ask a moment of respite. Let our souls catch their breaths for a moment, and lay aside any rancor or discontent. Gift us with the sense of the source and goal of the work we will do, and grace us then to recommit ourselves to the necessary exertions coming this day.

Our toil brings us one day closer to the end of this session, which seems so close at hand. May those same labors bring us also nearer to a fulfillment of what this House and this state continue to seek - the health and safety of our people. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FIFTIETH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Lord of Life, we acknowledge that the best things in life are gifts from You. Strengthen our faith. Protect us from discouragement. Keep this House working at the things that matter in the lives of the people of Missouri. Help them to move away from narrow self-interest and, in their work, reflect the highest and best.

Keep their hearts from becoming bitter and hard, and give to them a joy at being alive in Your world this day. To You be glory and honor forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FIFTY-FIRST DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 10, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Gracious God, as we pray, help us to place our actions in harmony with Your will. We are ashamed that we have done so little with so much, yet we press on to do better. Give us a sense of what is vital in life, lest we squander our days on inflated trifles.

Bless our Nation. Bless our State. Bless this House.

And to You be glory and honor, now and forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fiftieth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

FIFTY-SECOND DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

O Lord, to whom we will all have to account, grant us Your aid, that the work done this day may be pleasing to You.

If any here are in ill spirits, or clinging to grudges, if any are unable to let go of old hurts or sustain bitterness, then we pray that You will bless them.

Help this House to cheerfully bear with one another. And give to these men and women a quiet and understanding spirit. Bless them as they serve this day, and give life to their good intentions. To You be glory and honor, forever. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-THIRD DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Gracious God, as this day is still new, we bow in Your presence to thank You for all the blessings we know and are warmed by.

One of our blessings, in these Spring days, is found in the sounds of children and students in this capitol building. We are grateful for the boys and girls of Missouri. We pray for those growing up alongside us now, for those who teach them and for those who nurture them in faith and truth.

O Lord, teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts to wisdom, and value our children. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: The Kemper family, The Bohnert family, The Troyer family, Molly Schuh, Kyle Regan, Leah Muntges, Alex Muntges, Lisa Hugge, Christie Hovis, Chris Koenen, Brennan Connor, Joshua Bohnert, Royce Bohnert, Arielle Bohnert, Hughes DeTournemire, Nathan Temple Scott and Christa Elisabeth Scott.

The Journal of the fifty-second day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Representative Hosmer offered House Amendment No. 2.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Bill No. 1472, Page 2, at the end of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"211.321. 1. Records of juvenile court proceedings as well as all information obtained and social records prepared in the discharge of official duty for the court shall not be open to inspection or their contents disclosed, except by order of the court to persons having a legitimate interest therein, unless a petition or motion to modify is sustained which charges the child with an offense which, if committed by an adult, would be a class A felony under the criminal code of Missouri, or capital murder, first degree murder, or second degree murder or except as provided in subsection 2 of this section. In addition, whenever a report is required [under] pursuant to section 557.026, RSMo, there shall also be included a complete list of certain violations of the juvenile code for which the defendant had been adjudicated a delinquent while a juvenile. This list shall be made available to the probation officer and shall be included in the presentence report. The violations to be included in the report are limited to the following: rape, sodomy, murder, kidnaping, robbery, arson, burglary or any acts involving the rendering or threat of serious bodily harm. The supreme court may promulgate rules to be followed by the juvenile courts in separating the records.

2. In all proceedings [under] pursuant to subdivisions (1) and (2) of subsection 1 of section 211.031, the records of the juvenile court as well as all information obtained and social records prepared in the discharge of official duty for the court shall be kept confidential and shall be open to inspection only by order of the judge of the juvenile court or as otherwise provided by statute. In all proceedings [under] pursuant to subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 211.031 the records of the juvenile court as well as all information obtained and social records prepared in the discharge of official duty for the court shall be kept confidential and may be open to inspection without court order only as follows:

(1) The juvenile officer is authorized at any time:

(a) To provide information to or discuss matters concerning the child, the violation of law or the case with the victim, witnesses, officials at the child's school, law enforcement officials, prosecuting attorneys, any person or agency having or proposed to have legal or actual care, custody or control of the child, or any person or agency providing or proposed to provide treatment of the child. Information received pursuant to this paragraph shall not be released to the general public, but shall be released only to the persons or agencies listed in this paragraph;

(b) To make public information concerning the offense, the substance of the petition, the status of proceedings in the juvenile court and any other information which does not specifically identify the child or the child's family;

(2) After a child has been adjudicated delinquent pursuant to subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 211.031, for an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult, the records of the dispositional hearing and proceedings related thereto shall be open to the public to the same extent that records of criminal proceedings are open to the public. However, the social summaries, investigations or updates in the nature of presentence investigations, and status reports submitted to the court by any treating agency or individual after the dispositional order is entered shall be kept confidential and shall be opened to inspection only by order of the judge of the juvenile court;

(3) As otherwise provided by statute;

(4) In all other instances, only by order of the judge of the juvenile court.

3. Peace officers' records, if any are kept, of children shall be kept separate from the records of persons seventeen years of age or over and shall not be open to inspection or their contents disclosed, except by order of the court. This subsection does not apply to children who are transferred to courts of general jurisdiction as provided by section 211.071 or to juveniles convicted [under] pursuant to the provisions of sections 578.421 to 578.437, RSMo. This subsection does not apply to the inspection or disclosure of the contents of the records of peace officers for the purpose of pursuing a civil forfeiture action pursuant to the provisions of section 195.140, RSMo.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 3 of this section, intelligence data of children contained in the files of law enforcement agencies may be placed within a computer data storage system along with intelligence data of adults, provided that access to the computer data storage system is restricted to authorized employees. Authorized employees include all law enforcement agencies, peace officers and organizations established to house intelligence data within a central computer data storage system. Nothing in this subsection prohibits the exchange of intelligence or information by law enforcement agencies, peace officers and organizations established to house intelligence data within a central computer data storage system if the exchanged information is pertinent and necessary for law enforcement purposes. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the release of information and data to persons or organizations authorized by law to compile statistics relating to juveniles. The court shall adopt procedures to protect the confidentiality of children's names and identities.

5. The court may, either on its own motion or upon application by the child or [his] the child's representative, or upon application by the juvenile officer, enter an order to destroy all social histories, records, and information, other than the official court file, and may enter an order to seal the official court file, as well as all peace officers' records, at any time after the child has reached [his] the child's seventeenth birthday if the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child that such action or any part thereof be taken, unless the jurisdiction of the court is continued beyond the child's seventeenth birthday, in which event such action or any part thereof may be taken by the court at any time after the closing of the child's case.

6. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the release of general information regarding the informal adjustment or formal adjudication of the disposition of a child's case to a victim or a member of the immediate family of a victim of any offense committed by the child. Such general information shall not be specific as to location and duration of treatment or detention or as to any terms of supervision.

7. Records of juvenile court proceedings as well as all information obtained and social records prepared in the discharge of official duty for the court shall be disclosed to the child fatality review panel reviewing the child's death pursuant to section 210.192, RSMo, unless the juvenile court on its own motion, or upon application by the juvenile officer, enters an order to seal the records of the victim child."; and

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Committee on Environment and Energy, Chairman Wiggins reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Environment and Energy, to which was referred HCR 29, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 29

WHEREAS, the U.S. Department of Energy is in the second year of a ten-year plan to truck spent nuclear fuel containing weapon-grade plutonium and uranium from South Carolina to a waste storage site in Idaho; and

WHEREAS, last year, the U.S. Department of Energy routed the nuclear waste through the state of Iowa on Interstate 80, which is less traveled and has fewer accidents than other possible interstate routes; and

WHEREAS, for the summer of 2000, the U.S. Department of Energy has decided to reroute the nuclear waste through the state of Missouri on Interstate 70, which has far more traffic, far more accidents and far more maintenance problems than Interstate 80; and

WHEREAS, according to the Missouri Department of Natural Resources, in 1997, 6,242 accidents occurred on I-70 in Missouri compared to 1,574 accidents on I-80 in Iowa, and in 1998, 6,476 accidents occurred on I-70 in Missouri compared to 1,270 accidents on I-80 in Iowa; and

WHEREAS, in February of this year, the Governor of Missouri sent a letter to the U.S. energy secretary opposing the use of Interstate 70 for transportation of nuclear waste, citing the extremely high traffic volume and the large number of planned construction projects on Interstate 70 that will reduce traffic flow to a single lane throughout the summer of 2000; and

WHEREAS, in light of the U.S. Department of Energy's goal to protect the public and to protect the nuclear waste material during transportation, the decision of the Department to reroute nuclear waste on Interstate 70 instead of the safer Interstate 80 seems inconsistent with the stated goal of the Department:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby denounce the decision by the United States Department of Energy to reroute nuclear waste through the state of Missouri on Interstate 70 for the summer of 2000 and urge the energy secretary to utilize Interstate 80 for the transportation of nuclear waste; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Bill Richardson, the United States energy secretary.

Committee on Federal-State Relations and Veterans Affairs, Chairman Boucher reporting:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 27

WHEREAS, military retirees who have served honorably for twenty or more years constitute a significant part of the aging population in the United States; and

WHEREAS, these retirees were encouraged to make the United States Armed Forces a career, in part by the promise of lifetime health care for themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, prior to age sixty-five, these retirees are provided health services by the United States Department of Defense's TRICARE prime program, but those retirees who reach the age of sixty-five lose a significant portion of the promised health care due to Medicaid eligibility; and

WHEREAS, many of these retirees are also unable to access military treatment facilities for health care and life maintenance medications because they live in areas where there are no military treatment facilities or where these facilities have downsized so significantly that available space for care has become nonexistent; and

WHEREAS, the loss of access to health care services provided by the military has resulted in the government breaking its promise of lifetime health care; and

WHEREAS, without continued affordable health care, including pharmaceuticals, these retirees have limited access to quality health care and significantly less care than other retired federal civilians have under the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to enact legislation that would restore health care benefits equitable with those of other retired federal workers; and

WHEREAS, several proposals to meet this requirement are currently under consideration before the United States Congress and the federal Department of Defense and Department of Health and Human Services; of these proposals, the federal government has already begun to establish demonstration projects around the country to be conducted over the next three years, which would allow Medicare to reimburse the Department of Defense for the costs of providing military retirees and their dependents health care; this project would allow a limited number of Medicare-eligible beneficiaries to enroll in the Department of Defense's TRICARE prime program and receive all of their health care under that program:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby memorialize the Congress of the United States to maintain its commitment to America's military retirees by providing lifetime health care for military retirees over the age of sixty-five; to enact comprehensive legislation that affords military retirees the ability to access health care either through military treatment facilities or through the military's network of health care providers, as well as legislation to require opening the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program to those uniformed services beneficiaries who are eligible for Medicare, on the same basis and conditions that apply to retired federal civilian employees; and to enact any other appropriate legislation that would address the above concerns; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States, the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, and all members of the Missouri Congressional delegation with the request that this resolution be entered in the Congressional Record as a memorial to the Congress of the United States.

WHEREAS, last session, in Senate Bill No. 386, the general assembly recognized changes made by the United States Congress to Section 451(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, which allow for favorable tax treatment for those pre-October 22, 1998, lottery winners currently receiving annual payments from annuities or securities who elect to receive a single cash payment of the remaining value of their prize within the eighteen-month period between July 1, 1999, and December 31, 2000; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the passage of Senate Bill No. 386 and the signature of such bill by the governor, section 313.351 became law effective August 28, 1999; and

WHEREAS, section 313.351 allows the state lottery commission to authorize pre-October 22, 1998, lottery winners currently receiving annual payments from annuities or securities to elect a single cash payment in lieu of remaining annual payments upon presentation of a plan to the general assembly and receipt of approval therefor from the general assembly by concurrent resolution; and

WHEREAS, the state lottery commission has submitted to the speaker of the house of representatives, the president pro tempore of the senate and the commissioner of the office of administration the details of its plan to allow state lottery prize winners who are currently receiving annual payments to receive the present value of the remaining payments at the date of execution a single cash payment in lieu of remaining annual payments pursuant to Section 451(h) of the Internal Revenue Code; and

WHEREAS, the plan specifies all details required by section 313.351, including details on obtaining the funds necessary to present the option of single cash payments to pre-October 22, 1998, lottery winners, data indicating fifty percent of such winners will choose a lump-sum option, data indicating that a one-time increase of total state revenues would occur in an approximate amount of four million six hundred thousand dollars and the lottery's belief that offering the single cash payments will provide a valuable service to lottery winners:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby determine that the state lottery commission's plan complies with the requirements of section 313.351, and that approving such plan will provide a valuable service to lottery winners which, in turn, will serve to further education in this state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby approve the state lottery commission's plan for implementing lump-sum payments for pre-October 21, 1998, lottery winners.

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2000

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Gracious God, our history and our experiences remind us so many times that You do guide us that we should not doubt Your power or presence. There are times when we doubt our beliefs and believe our doubts. In these times, help us to seek Your will and strive to live Your will as we find it. Give to those chosen to lead strength of conviction and dedication to selfless service of the people of Missouri.

Bless these men and women of the House and those who work with them.

"Section 1. 1. Sections 1 to 3 of this act shall be known and may be cited as the "Farmland Protection Act".

2. The purpose of the farmland protection act shall be to:

- (1) Protect agricultural, horticultural and forestry land;
- (2) Promote the continued economic viability of agriculture, horticulture and forestry as a business;
- (3) Promote the continued economic viability of those businesses dependent on providing materials, equipment and services to agriculture, horticulture or forestry; and
- (4) Promote quality of life in the agriculture community.

Section 2. 1. The state or any political subdivision shall hold water and sewer assessments in abeyance, without interest, until improvements on such property are connected to the water or sewer system for which the assessment was made.

2. This section shall only apply to tracts of real property:

- (1) Comprised of ten or more contiguous acres; and
- (2) Used as agricultural or single family residential property or both; and
- (3) Not in a platted subdivision.

3. At the time improvements on such property are connected to either the water or sewer system, the owner shall pay to the political subdivision an amount equal to the proportionate charge for the number of system lines connected to improvements on such property.

4. The owner shall not be charged based on the total cost of running the water or sewer assessments to or across the owner's real property. Rather, the assessment shall be based on:

- (1) A reasonable hookup charge; and
- (2) A proportionate charge for the number of improvements requested to be connected to such assessments in relation to the total capacity of the system; and
- (3) The anticipated proportionate burden to the system.

5. The period of abeyance shall end when the owner exercises the option to connect to the improvements for which the assessment was made.

6. When the period of abeyance ends, the assessment is payable in accordance with the terms set out in the assessment resolution, so long as said terms are not inconsistent with sections 1 to 3 of this act. To the extent that such terms are inconsistent, the provisions of sections 1 to 3 of this act shall control.

7. Statutes of limitations are suspended during the time that any assessment is held in abeyance without interest.

8. The political subdivision responsible for assessments shall notify the owner of the amount proposed to be charged and the terms of payment for each improvement requested to be connected to said assessment. The notice shall:

- (1) Be provided in writing to the owner at the address provided by the owner as the address for receiving receipt of notice;
- (2) Be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested within forty-five days of receipt of the request for hookup from the owner;
- (3) State in the body of the letter as follows: "As owner of the property proposed to be assessed, you have thirty days from the date of receipt of this notice to accept, in writing, the amount of the assessment stated herein or to appeal the amount to the circuit court of the county where the real property is located".

9. If the owner disputes the amount of assessment when the period of abeyance ends, the owner may appeal the amount of the assessment to the circuit court of the county in which the application was filed within thirty days of the receipt of the notice.

10. Nothing in this section is intended to diminish the authority of counties to hold assessments in abeyance.

Section 3. Property subject to the farmland protection act may not be taken in whole or in part by any political subdivision of this state by eminent domain except after a public hearing pursuant to chapter 610, RSMo."; and

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 29.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 29

WHEREAS, the General Assembly finds, for the purpose of streamlining and simplifying sales and use tax imposition and collection for the twenty-first century, that:

Missouri should simplify sales and use taxes to reduce the administrative burden on the collection of sales and use taxes by both single state and multistate taxpayers and vendors;

State and local tax systems should treat transactions in a competitively neutral manner;

A simplified sales and use tax system that treats all transactions in a competitively neutral manner will strengthen and preserve the sales and use tax as vital state and local revenue sources and will preserve state fiscal sovereignty;

Remote sellers should neither receive preferential tax treatment at the expense of local "main street" merchants, nor be burdened with special, discriminatory or multiple taxes; and

While states have the sovereign right to set their own tax policies, states working together have the opportunity to develop a more simple, uniform and fair system of state sales and use taxation without federal government mandates of interference; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly directs the Missouri Department of Revenue to enter into discussions with other states regarding the development of a multistate, voluntary, streamlined system for sales and use tax collection and administration. Such discussions shall focus on a system that would have the capability to determine whether transactions are taxable or tax exempt, the appropriate tax rate applicable to transactions, the total tax due on transactions, the provision of a method to collect and remit sales and use taxes to the state and the development of a joint request for information from potential public and private parties governing the specification for the system; and

WHEREAS, discussions between the Department of Revenue and other states may also include, but shall not be limited to providing compensation for the costs of collecting and remitting sales and use taxes; the mechanism for compensating parties for the development and operation of such system; the establishment of minimum statutory simplification measures necessary for state participation in such system; and the establishment of measures to preserve confidentiality of taxpayer information and privacy rights of consumers; and

WHEREAS, upon the conclusion of its discussions with other state, the Department of Revenue shall issue a joint request for information; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Revenue is authorized to participate in a sales tax pilot project with other states and selected businesses to test means for simplifying sales and use tax administration, and to enter into joint agreements, which terminate no later than December 31, 2001, for that purpose. Agreements to participate in the test shall establish provisions for the administration, imposition and collection of sales and use taxes resulting in revenues paid that are equal to those that would otherwise be paid pursuant to chapter 144, RSMo. Parties to the agreements are excused from complying with the provisions of chapter 144, RSMo, to the extent a different procedure is required by the agreements, except for confidentiality of taxpayer information as discussed in this resolution; and

WHEREAS, tax return information submitted to any party or parties' action for and on behalf of this state shall be treated as confidential taxpayer information. Disclosure of confidential taxpayer information shall only be made pursuant to a written agreement between the Department of Revenue and the party or parties. Such party or parties shall be bound by the same requirements of confidentiality as the Department of Revenue pursuant to section 32.057, RSMo; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly herein creates the Multistate Tax Compact Advisory Committee to provide legislative oversight of this effort. The committee shall consist of two members of the Senate appointed by the President Pro Tem, two members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker, the director of the Department of Revenue, the Attorney General and his or her designee, and a member of the Governor's staff to be designated by the Governor. The committee shall meet on a monthly basis at the request of the director of the Department of Revenue, who shall be the chairman, or more often if requested by a majority of the committee members; and

WHEREAS, the committee shall provide a quarterly report on the progress of the multistate tax discussion and other tax simplification efforts to the President Pro Tem of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Governor. By October 1, 2001, the committee shall also provide to the President Pro Tem of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Governor a final report on the status of multistate discussions, including information as to whether a proposed system has been agreed upon by participating states and whether or not Missouri should participate in such agreed upon system:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby determine that streamlining and simplifying sales and use tax systems in this state will promote commerce in this state and hereby direct the Department of Revenue to work toward the goal of streamlining and simplifying sales and use taxes in this state in a manner as specified herein and as overseen by the Multistate Tax Compact Advisory Committee created herein; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Department of Revenue.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

RESOLUTION

HR 233 was taken up by the Missouri House of Representatives and read.

House Resolution No. 233

WHEREAS, it is with a tremendous sense of pride that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding group of athletes who have distinguished themselves as the world champions of professional football; and

WHEREAS, on January 30, 2000, the St. Louis Rams culminated their unbelievable season as they walked away with the Super Bowl XXXIV Championship after defeating the Tennessee Titans during a nail-biting game that ended with a Rams victory of 23-16; and

WHEREAS, following a 16-0 lead at the half, the Tennessee Titans came back to tie the score at 16-all until Wide Receiver Isaac Bruce completed a 73-yard touchdown pass to put the Rams out in front, where they anticipated a victory until the Titans made their way into the red zone in the final minutes of the game; and

WHEREAS, both teams fearing an overtime sudden death, the last play of the game came when Outside Linebacker Mike Jones, the pride of the University of Missouri, prevented a touchdown attempt made by Titan Kevin Dyson with a textbook tackle at the one-yard line as time expired; and

WHEREAS, Super Bowl XXXIV was highlighted by contributions from NFL and Super Bowl MVP Quarterback Kurt Warner, who broke a Super Bowl Record with 414 yards passing; Wide Receiver Isaac Bruce, who made six receptions for 162 yards; Wide Receiver Torry Holt, who made one touchdown and seven receptions for 109 yards; and NFL Offensive Player of the Year Running Back Marshall Faulk, who holds the new NFL All-Time Yards from Scrimmage Record at 2,429 yards; and

WHEREAS, the Super Bowl Championship Team sparkled with the stunning talent of eight Pro Bowl players, including Kurt Warner, Marshall Faulk, Adam Timmerman, Todd Lyght, Kevin Carter, Isaac Bruce, D'Marco Farr, and Orlando Pace; and

WHEREAS, the oldest Head Coach ever to win a Super Bowl title, NFL Coach of the Year Dick Vermeil led the Rams to glory after culminating his long and illustrious career with his third Super Bowl victory and his first trip to the Super Bowl in nineteen years; and

WHEREAS, the St. Louis Rams scored more points than any other team in the NFL this season to win their first Super Bowl and to become Missouri's first Super Bowl Champions since the Kansas City Chiefs in 1970:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninetieth General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Rams owner Georgia Frontiere, Head Coach Dick Vermeil, and the entire coaching staff and players of the St. Louis Rams Football Team for bringing the coveted Lombardi Trophy home to the Show-Me State; and
